Luxor

Luxor, an Egyptian city renowned for its rich cultural and historical heritage, is frequently called the "greatest open-air museum in the world." During this guided tour, you will visit numerous sites in Luxor, including:

- Luxor temple; the complex that's located on the east bank of the Nile River, focused on the annual Opet festival in ancient Egypt.
- The Valley of the Kings, as well as the valley of the queens. The two valleys house the bodies of most of ancient Egypt's kings and Queens. There are over 90 tombs in The Valley of Queens and 63 tombs in the Valley of the Kings.
- Dra' Abu El-naga'; where Queen Ahhotep is buried; the queen who served as regent during the minority of the pharaoh Ahmose and promoted the expulsion of the Hyksos rulers.
- Ramesseum Temple; the memorial temple of Pharaoh Ramesses II.
- The Colossi of Memnon that is included in our Egypt day tours: the two massive stone statues of the Pharaoh Amenhotep III.
