Day 2: Siwa Sightseeing

The next day after taking very tasty and healthy breakfast, you will enjoy the thrilling tour of Desert Safari Siwa Oasis. The first area you are going to visit is the Shali which was a very rich town but now it lies in the middle of the desert some of them are under construction today because it’s an ancient town. From there, you will go on to the temple of the Oracle, famously known as Alexander the Great temple which is in the village of Aghurmi of the 26th Dynasty.

In the next planned visit you will the Temple of Amun Ra in Um Ubeyda which has specifically associated with the triad of gods including Amun. After that, you will be able to visit the Siwa House Museum and there, you are showcased the ways of the living of the Bedouin people of Siwa. Having lunch in one of the most beautiful places in the oasis you can eat in the Shali Fortress or in the unforgettable Adbo restaurant.

Likewise I go further to Cleopatra Beach also known as Ein Guba, where tourists can also swim and take a bath in the natural spring which has been attracting fascination to many especially to tourists for some time now. Day four: In the morning you will be transferred to Nars Island in the afternoon you will be brought back to Fitnas Island in the evening to watch a beautiful sunset.

It will be a night’s accommodation in Siwa and there you may be thinking about the great experience of the day.

Day 3: Shiata - Great Sand Sea - Bir Wahed

Early in the morning as you wake up you will have your breakfast in the ecologides expecting to cover the much larger Great Sand Sea. Firstly, you will visit Maraki Village which is found nearby the giant Siwa Mountain. Here it will be possible to observe that early man and Civilization remained unknown till carved on seven pieces of coral fossils of the Cambrian age amidst the region of desert.

The takers of risk are not excluded through sandboarding on the large dunes of the Great Sand Sea. However, it may not be as fast as snowboarding but gliding down the slopes on the soft golden sand is an equally amazing experience and if you use the right wax you simply slide. If you are all pumped up from the action then head over to Bir Wahid; hot spring water set at 40 degrees Celsius would melt out all the tension on your muscles and pep up your spirits.

In the evening, you will be able to watch yet another gorgeous sunset over the Great Sand Sea – still more wonderful than to spend a day full of interesting events.

Day 4: Siwa Oasis Tour

The next set of sites in the Siwa Oasis tour starts in the morning when after having breakfast at the hotel then your guide will take you to the Mountain of the Dead – cut tombs of Kings of the 26th Dynasty, Si Amon Tombs and the Crocodile Tombs. These tombs are a rather wonderful opportunity to learn more about the history and culture of Siwa Oasis.

The following stop will be at Abu Ali Bedouin village and while affording one time in this place all the guests will be free to interact with the Bedouin people. Learn it’s like living in the village and having to go through meeting people, spending one class school GET engaged in the Bedouine’s way of life. You may also get a chance to visit a tomb which is just a stone's throw away and so end up making another historical trip.

In the evening, there is music and lights which are entertaining – this is perfect because one will be thinking of what was taught. You will then have to be back in your hotel overnight stay in Siwa after the show Siwa is like a very big village and has tourist attractions such as the Temple of Amun, the old town and hot springs.
