Day 3: Fly to Aswan, Aswan Excursions

After checking out from the hotel, you will hurry up to catch your flight to Aswan. then you will Check in our 5-star Egypt Nile cruise from Aswan to Luxor. After some time to rest, we will start our Aswan excursions on the Nile by visiting the Aswan High Dam, where the guide will explain how the construction of the dam and the subsequent creation of Lake Nasser required the transfer of the Nubian people and some important historical monuments, including Abu Simbel Temples, which you have the opportunity to visit tomorrow.

We will take a short boat ride to the Island of Agilkia to explore the Temple of Philae. Built during the Ptolemaic era (from 305 B.C. to 30 B.C.), the temple is dedicated to Goddess Isis, one of the oldest deities of ancient Egypt. We will continue to see the Unfinished Obelisk at the granite quarries to see the most impressive obelisk that is believed to be cut during the reign of the famous Queen

Hatshepsut. Back again and overnight aboard the cruise in Aswan.

Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4: Kom Ombo and Edfu Temples

You will begin your day with an optional excursion to the Abu Simbel temples from Aswan, renowned as impressive monuments in southern Egypt and designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. These temples, carved into the mountainside during the 18th dynasty of the New Kingdom under Pharaoh Ramses II, are known as the "Nubian Monuments". Following this, the tour proceeds with a visit to the Kom Ombo Temple, a unique double temple dedicated to the crocodile god Sobek and the falcon god Haroeris (Horus). After exploring Kom Ombo Temple, we will journey to Edfu, where the well-preserved temple dedicated to Horus, protector of kingship, awaits. Dating back over 2,000 years, this temple remained buried in sand until its rediscovery by the French expedition in 1798. Our cruise then continues to Luxor, where we will spend the night aboard the luxurious 5-star cruise ship.

Day 5: Luxor West Bank Tours

Our first stop will be the renowned Valley of the Kings, where you'll have the opportunity to explore the remarkable tombs of Pharaohs from the New Kingdom era, including the tomb of King Tutankhamun. Following this, we'll visit the impressive Temple of Hatshepsut (known as El Deir El Bahary Temple), the mortuary temple of ancient Egypt's first queen who ruled during the New Kingdom period. The day will conclude with a visit to the magnificent Colossi of Memnon, the remaining statues of the temple of Amenophis III. We'll return to the cruise ship for overnight stay.

Day 6: Luxor East Bank Tours

Today, your journey begins with a visit to Luxor's East Bank, starting with the Karnak complex, a significant part of the ancient city of Thebes. Dedicated to the powerful ram-headed god Amun, Karnak features a vast array of temples, chapels, statues, and obelisks. Following this, we will explore the Luxor Temple, connected to Karnak Temple by a long avenue of sphinxes. Luxor Temple is dedicated to the triad of Amun, his wife Mut, and their son Khonso, and together these temples and deities were central to the annual Opet Festival during the flood season. Later, we will travel by private air-conditioned vehicle to Hurghada on the Red Sea coast, where we will stay at an all-inclusive resort.
