If you visit the Great Pyramids of Giza, you will be a little over 200 years before the Era of King Cheops, who owned the Great Pyramid at Giza; still an enigma to the tourists there. With our Cairo day tours, you can take amazing tours through the sacred cemetery of the Old Kingdom capital of Egypt. Visit the first smooth-sided red pyramid and the bent pyramid in Dahchur before heading to the Pyramid of Snefru also known as Meidum pyramid and open your eyes in wide reception to appreciate the structures erected 4650 years ago, which casts boastful structures to record names of Kings and rulers of the new kingdom that started the glamorous real age of Egyptians.

Please continue to see the most interesting artifacts displayed in glory at the most ancient capital in the world Mit Rahina the present-day Memphis City which has an open-air museum with big statues of King Ramses II from the New Kingdom. Then our lunch is served during Egypt Day Tours or when you are through with your Cairo Trips. Important Note: as you will see these sites are not necessarily sequential. We also started in Dahshur area which is the distant one from the city of Giza and extended up to there.

The Egyptian Museum which is situated in Cairo contains a great number of exhibits and relics belonging to ancient Egypt and other periods as well. The history and cultural facts are given by professional Egyptologists who are part of the Egypt Day Tours and help the guests of the country to feel the atmosphere and know the history of Egypt.
