During the transfer, our representative will review your Egypt Travel Packages itinerary with you and confirm the pick-up times for each day tour, ensuring a smooth and well-organized trip.

Upon arrival at your hotel, you will be served a welcome drink to refresh and relax.

Enjoy your overnight stay in Cairo, preparing for the exciting adventures ahead.

Day 2 : Pyramids of Giza, Memphis and Sakkara Tour

On Day 2 of your Cairo and Sharm El Sheikh Easter Tours, after enjoying a delicious breakfast buffet at your hotel in Cairo, you will meet your English-speaking tour guide to start your Cairo Day Tours to the Giza Plateau.

Your first stop will be the Great Pyramid of Cheops, also known as the Pyramid of Khufu. This 4,500-year-old pyramid is an architectural marvel, comprising over 2.6 million pieces of rock. Your guide will provide you with fascinating insights into the history and significance of this ancient wonder.

Next, you will visit the Pyramid of Chephren, the second-largest pyramid on the Giza Plateau. King Chephren, who also built the Sphinx and the Valley Temple, constructed this pyramid. You will also have the opportunity to explore the Pyramid of Mycerinus, the smallest of the three main pyramids at Giza.

This pyramid stands out for its use of granite from quarries near Aswan, in addition to limestone. One of the highlights of your visit will be the Great Sphinx, a monumental statue with the head of a pharaoh and the body of a lion. This iconic symbol represents intelligence and strength, and your guide will share its historical and cultural significance with you. During your visit to the Giza Plateau, you will also enjoy a panoramic tour of all the Giza pyramids, providing you with the perfect opportunity to capture memorable photos. Additionally, visit the Solar Boat behind the Pyramid of Cheops.

Afterwards, you will proceed to Sakkara, where you will explore the Stepped Pyramid Complex. This complex is home to the oldest pyramid in history, built by King Djoser over 4,600 years ago. You will also have the opportunity to enter the pyramid of Teti, known for its spectacular interior, and explore the tombs of the nobles at Sakkara, which offer insights into the daily life of ancient Egyptians.

The final stop of the day will be Memphis, the first capital in Egyptian history. Inside the Memphis open-air museum, you will see a famous statue of King Ramses II and an alabaster sphinx, providing further insights into ancient Egyptian history.

After the tour, you will have your lunch at a local restaurant then you will be transferred back to your hotel in Cairo for an overnight stay.

Enjoy the rest of your evening at your leisure.

Day 3 : Cairo Tour

On Day 3 of your Cairo and Sharm El Sheikh Easter Tours, after enjoying breakfast at your hotel, you will meet your professional tour guide from Cairo Top Tours to start your Cairo Day Tours.

The first stop will be The Egyptian Museum, which was built in 1902 and houses over 120,000 Egyptian artifacts.

You will have the opportunity to see the massive statues of the great Egyptian Kings, including the famous golden mask and treasures of King Tutankhamun.

Next, you will visit the Citadel of Saladin, built by the renowned Islamic leader Sultan Saladin to defend Cairo from the crusaders. Inside the Citadel, you will see the impressive alabaster mosque, constructed by King Mohamed Ali 200 years ago during Turkish rule in Egypt.

Your Egyptologist guide will then take you after having the lunch to Coptic Cairo, an area that was a stronghold for Christians until the Islamic conquest of Egypt. You will visit the ancient Roman fortress of Babylon and explore the iconic Hanging Church, which dates back to the 3rd century. You will also visit the church of St Sergius, which houses a crypt where the holy virgin Mary and Jesus are believed to have stayed for nearly three months. Lastly, you will visit Ben Ezra Synagogue to experience the peaceful atmosphere.

Afterwards, you will continue to the Islamic district of Cairo, where you will explore Khan El Khalili, the oldest bazaar in the Middle East, which has been in operation for over a thousand years.

At the end of the day, we will transfer you back to your hotel in Cairo for overnight stay. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch
