Day 2: Giza Pyramids Tour / Egyptian Museum Tour

To begin your tour of the Giza Pyramids, meet our representative at the hotel early in the morning. You will visit The Great Sphinx and the Valley Temple facing the fabled structure that is thought to have been built for King Khafra, as well as the three enormous pyramids in Giza that were constructed for the three kings of the old kingdom, Cheops, Chephren, and Mycerinus. As part of your tour of the Giza Pyramids, you'll have the fantastic opportunity to ride camels around the structures to get the best pictures with the help of a Bedouin guide.

Then, continue to the well-known Tahrir Square in downtown Cairo to start your private tour of The Egyptian Museum, The Egyptian Museum, which was built in 1902 and houses thousands of statues and coffins, is home to numerous artifacts. Your tour guide will be able to fill you in on a wealth of information about these items.

We'll have lunch at a nearby restaurant after that.

After your day trips in Cairo are over, take a transfer back to the hotel.

Day 3: old Cairo tours

To visit the most well-known sites in old Cairo, our tour guide will pick you up from your hotel.

For an informative tour of Coptic Cairo, let's move on to Old Cairo, The Hanging Church of the Holy Virgin Mary, which dates to the beginning of Christianity in Egypt, is located here, The Ben Ezra Synagogue, the oldest Jewish place of worship in Egypt, and the Cavern Church of Saint Sergius are also nearby.

before going shopping at Khan El Khalili Bazaar, have lunch at a nearby eatery.

After your day trips in Cairo are over, take a transfer back to the hotel.

Day 4: Cairo to Luxor, East Bank of Luxor Tour

After leaving your Cairo hotel, a Cairo Top Tours representative will drive you to the Cairo International Airport. A representative from our company will meet you when you arrive in Luxor and drive you to the pier where your Luxor to Aswan Nile Cruise will depart from. From Luxor to Aswan, your Nile cruise tours take place.

The two largest and most important temples in ancient Egypt, the Temple of Luxor and the Karnak Temple were built by numerous kings, including Amenhotep III, and are where you should begin your explorations of Luxor today.

On board and overnight, take advantage of the lunch and dinner buffets.

Day 5: West Bank of Luxor/ Edfu

On the Nile cruise ship, savor an excellent morning meal before meeting your guide to start your west bank of Luxor tours. You'll go to the Valley of the Kings, where you can see numerous rock-cut tombs for various kings of ancient Egypt, as well as the Colossi of Memnon, the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, which was built by Hatshepsut, a well-known and powerful queen during the 18th dynasty.
