Reiseplan

Day 1: Cairo to Dakhla Oasis

Upon arrival, you'll be greeted by our representative and transferred to Dakhla Oasis in a Jeep vehicle. Visit the Roman Temple of Deir El Hagar, which is one of Egypt's smallest temples. Afterward, visit the Roman burial ground Muzzawaqa to see some of Egypt's most stunning rock-cut tombs. Enjoy lunch before visiting the old Islamic Village of Al Qasr, which was built from its Roman ruins and has narrow covered streets dating back to the 12th century. In the afternoon, you'll have time to relax by the pool before visiting the lush Dakhla to enjoy its clear blue sky and golden sand dunes. You'll witness the breathtaking sunset on the Edge of the Great Sand Sea while enjoying a delicious Bedouin tea. Spend the night in Dakhla at the Desert lodge atop the cliff, offering a magnificent view of the verdant village embraced by the dunes and the beautiful pink rose mountains that Dakhla oasis is famous for.

We recommend wearing white and cotton clothes to avoid the sun's rays and feel more comfortable during the tour. The tour includes lunch and dinner, and you'll spend the night at your hotel in Dakhla.

Day 2: Sugar Loaf, Mud Lions

After enjoying a delicious breakfast, we'll prepare for our visit to Gilf El Kebir. This area has a fascinating geological history that dates back millions of years. During the Tertiary period, it was a watershed from which water spread in all directions, and over the past 100,000 year.

Our first stop will be at the Sugar Loaf area, which is a landmark spot in El Gilf El Kebir featuring a hill and arch formation. Next, we'll visit the Mud Lions area, which was once an extensive lake during ancient times, but is now dried up. Due to atmospheric changes over time, figures have been formed from the rocks, giving this area its name.

In the evening, we'll enjoy stargazing and a delicious dinner before spending the night in our camp.

The tour includes breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 3: Gilf El Kebir Safari Adventure

After having breakfast, we'll embark on an exciting 4x4 car safari trip in El Gilf El Kebir. We'll cruise over sand dunes and pass through the Wadi Mashi area before arriving at the Central Gilf Kebir area, which offers a breathtaking view of sand dunes and rock structures.

Our journey will continue until we reach Wadi Assib, where we can set up camp in the desert and enjoy the enchanting atmosphere of the area. We'll have the opportunity to enjoy a delicious dinner, and spend the night at leisure.

The tour includes breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 4: Aqaba Path, Swimmer's Cave, and Wadi Sura

Our next destination is the Aqaba path, where we'll see the western hills of Gilf El Kebir. Our first stop will be at the Swimmer's Cave, located in the Wadi Sura (Valley of Pictures). The cave was discovered by Almasi in 1933, and it contains over a thousand figures of various styles, including famous swimmers painted in red with unique body shapes.

Next, we'll visit the Mestekawi Cave, which was discovered in 2002 by an Egyptian-Italian tourist group led by Massimo Foggini and Ahmed Mistikaoui. This cave is home to numerous well-preserved ancient rock drawings.

In the evening, we'll set up camp in Wadi Sura to enjoy the enchanting atmosphere of the area. We'll have the opportunity to stargaze, enjoy a delicious dinner, and spend the night in our cozy camp.

The tour includes breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 5: Wadi Abd El Malik

We'll start the day with a delicious breakfast prepared and served at the camp before boarding the jeep to head to Wadi Abd El Malik. This area was also discovered by Al Masi and is known for its beautiful acacia forest, which offers a stunning backdrop for photos.

Later in the day, we'll set up camp in Wadi Abd El Malik and spend time with local Bedouins, enjoying their hospitality and savoring tea and dinner in the serene desert surroundings.

The tour includes breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 6: Silica Glass Area

After enjoying breakfast at the camp, we'll continue our Desert Safari Trip to El Gilf El Kebir. Our first stop will be at the Silica Glass Area, which was formed 26 million years ago. This vast area is covered in beautiful, clear yellow and green Silica Glass, creating a stunning and mysterious landscape.

Later in the day, we'll set up camp in the Silica Glass area and spend time with local Bedouins, enjoying their hospitality and savoring tea and dinner in the serene desert surroundings.

The tour includes breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 7: Ain Dalla

After having breakfast at the camp, we'll continue our safari to Ain Dalla water spring. This natural spring is one of the most beautiful and calming in Egypt, surrounded by palm trees from all directions. You can take a dip in the warm water or enjoy some meditation.

Later in the day, we'll set up camp in the same area and spend time with local Bedouins, enjoying their hospitality and savoring tea and dinner in the serene desert surroundings.

The tour includes breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 8: Back to Cairo

After enjoying an early morning breakfast, we'll begin our drive back to Cairo, concluding our unforgettable 7-day safari trip to El Gilf El Kebir. The tour includes breakfast on this day.
