First day: Embarkation and visiting Abu simple temple

On the first day, you will be transferred from the airport by a Cairo Top Tour representative who will be waiting for you upon your arrival. You will be transferred by a private, air-conditioned, comfortable car to start your Nice Tour.

Your first visit will be to Abu Simple Temples, one of the greatest temples in Egypt and the world. After meeting your private tour guide, who will accompany you during your enjoyable vacation to discover more and more about Egyptian civilization and discover Abu simple temples, which date back to the ancient Egyptian civilization more than 3000 years ago.

When you see the temple from the first look, you will know that the temple is carved inside a cliff from the sandstone. Some archeologists believe that the temple was built after the victory of the Cadiz battle by Ramses II to celebrate with his wife. The temple is dedicated to the worshipping of the Egyptian gods, Amun, Ra, Horakhti, and Ptah.

The second temple was built to reflect the love of Rameses II for his wife Nefertarti. He ordered the building of this temple to honor his wife, including two temples for the king and his wife of the same size, which was unusual in this period. The statues of the kings were always bigger than their queen's statues, which reflects how Ramses II appreciated and loved his wife.

After you enjoy discovering the great stories behind this enchanting temple, you will be transferred to your Nile cruise to enjoy the first luxury night and enjoy your meals.

Included meals: Lunch and dinner.

Second day: Discover more about Aswan temples

On the second day of your adventure, have a nice and calm morning while having your delicious breakfast. Meet your guide to start visiting and exploring. Our first temple will be Kasr Ibrim.

Kasr Ibrim is the only place that survived after raising the water by building the high dam. This fortress back to the Roman ages, and after that the Mamlouk ran to take it as a shelter until Ibrahim Basha came and evacuated it. It is one of the rare places that can be visited by being only abroad Prince Abbass Nile cruise. Then back to your beautiful cruise and enjoy your delicious lunch and the sunset of the Nile River.

Then, you will enjoy the sailing process for Wadi El Siboua, which is a very distinctive temple even concerning its art of architecture, where its front facade is constructed of stone and the temple from the inside is made of rocks. After the Roman persecution, the temple turned into a church with some changes. The temple was built by the great King Ramses II. The temple gained this name due to the entrance, which was preceded by a road with a group of sphinxes in the form of crouching seals. On this road, celebrations were held to celebrate the coronation of the king and the national events.

Finally, let's get back to the Nile cruise to enjoy a different night, starting with the cocktail party and the celebration of the Nubian show by the staff of the Nile cruise. Be ready to spend an unforgettable night.

Day 3 : Enjoy visiting Wadi El Siboua and Aswan

In the morning, enjoy the sailing process, watching the green trees and the islands surrounding the Nile River. Enjoy your delicious breakfast from professional chefs on your Nile cruise. Upon arrival, visit the distinctive temple of Wadi El Suboa. The significance of the temple is that it embraces three temples inside it.

The visit to this enchanting temple will always be by the floating Nile cruises. It has been moved from its first place to protect it from increasing the Nile River water after building the High Dam. Therefore, the Egyptian government cooperated with American organizations to move the temple to a safe place.

After visiting the fascinating temple, you will be back on your Nile cruise and enjoy your delicious lunch while sailing to Aswan to have a relaxing night. Experience the vibes of the night between the Nile banks with the fresh air and the beautiful sunset. You will arrive in Aswan, the city of beauty and civilization. Enjoy the best natural views and unique bird scenes in Aswan

Day 4: Discovering Kalabsha temple

Kalpsha temple is where the sun shines every year twice in the sacred chamber dedicated to the god Mandolis, like the sun shining in Abu simple temple. god Mandolis is the god of the sun for the ancient Nubians. It is considered one of the most unique temples built in the Nubian style. Through the ages, various civilizations have influenced the temple by leaving special prints on the walls of the temple, for example, the dedication of the temple to the Nubian Idol.

When you see the temple, you will find stairs leading you to the roof to have a great look at the temple and the sacred lake. After this, check out your Nile cruise, and if you have time, you can add another optional tour to your day, like visiting the Nubian village and enjoying seeing the real original citizens and their joyful celebrations. Aswan is a very beautiful city her visits and temples of the Egyptian civilization don't have an end.
