Begin an extraordinary trip through Egypt's standout historical landmarks and remarkable vistas from Aswan as the starting point to Cairo. The Nile's peaceful charm converges with historical monuments in this place known as Aswan. The site of Philae Temple highlights the goddess Isis through its magnificent structures and the technical prowess of the Aswan High Dam can be admired. Witness Nubian village culture and scenic Elephantine Island by sailing through the area in a classic felucca boat. Visitors who want to experience something truly extraordinary can embark on a visit to the Abu Simbel Temples which Ramses II had carved into the mountains.

The northward path along the Nile River should include visits to the Temple of Kom Ombo and the well-conserved Temple of Edfu where Horus the falcon deity is honored. Visitors can enter Luxor's open-air museum after their arrival as this destination features the expansive Karnak Temple together with Luxor Temple and the burial sites within the Valley of the Kings. Before continuing your journey to Cairo you must check out the mortuary temple of Queen Hatshepsut together with Memnon's massive statues before taking public transportation.

Travelers in Cairo get to enjoy how timeless Egyptian history exists harmoniously among contemporary city life. Bewilderment strikes visitors at the Great Pyramids of Giza along with the Sphinx mystery while they search for treasures at the Egyptian Museum which holds the sacred artifacts of King Tutankhamun. The Khan El Khalili Bazaar provides a sensory experience with its aromatic mix of spices and its glittering collection of handmade merchandise throughout the market. By combining Nile cruise with tomb exploration and local meal tasting this Aswan to Cairo expedition delivers an in-depth and unforgettable discovery of Egypt's eternal archaeological attractions.

Cairo day tour

Take an early flight or train from Aswan to Cairo to meet your private Egyptologist guide to a day full of fascinating visits to the most important historical sites in Egypt. Visit the Giza Plateau, where the most famous Egyptian monuments await, including the Great Pyramids of Khufu, Khafre, and Menkaure, and the enigmatic Sphinx beyond. The next stop will be Sakkara, where you'll find the Step Pyramid of Djoser, Egypt's earliest pyramid, before continuing to tombs with beautiful carvings. Memphis is the next stop on your trail.

Enjoy an appetizing lunch in the local restaurant and then set out for the world-famous Egyptian Museum in downtown Cairo. It houses an impressive collection of artifacts, from the spectacular treasures of King Tutankhamun to royal mummies and relics from thousands of years ago. Your guide will bring history to life around these chapels-in-the-making, as he or she helps you enjoy the experience of the museum's vast halls.

You will end the day with a relaxing drive back to the airport or the train station to return to Aswan. Happy memories of an unforgettable journey through ancient Egypt will accompany you. The pyramids, the royal statues, and valuable artifacts all combine into a deep exploration of the grandeur and meaningful history of Egypt, making this tour highly enriching.
