After breakfast, we will start visiting the Valley of the Kings because Luxor includes many ancient Pharaonic tombs on the West Bank in the number one funerary city in history, which is called "Valley of the Kings Tombs," which is considered the funerary city of the great pharaohs for hundreds of years. This area was called the Great Valley in ancient times due to the large number of tombs of the kings inside it.

You will also visit the Temple of Hatshepsut, which is considered the jewel of the great temples of Luxor and its pearl and attracts millions of tourists throughout the year. This magnificent temple is considered the most prominent archaeological site in the northern Deir el-Bahari, and the funerary temple complex and the tombs are located on the west bank of the great Nile River, opposite the city of Luxor.

You will see the statues of Memnon, which are two large giants that have been standing for thousands of years on the right of the road leading to the tombs of the dead in the majestic Valley of the Kings and Queens, and the rest of the temples scattered on the West Bank in the Luxor Governorate. These two statues stand guard over the road and all the temples in the west.

We will transfer you back to your cruise to have your delicious dinner and have some rest.

You should not miss booking the amazing optional hot air balloon tour to enjoy the breathtaking views of Luxor from above.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3: Exciting tour to Kom Ombo Temple and Edfu Temple:

You will enjoy your delicious breakfast at the beginning of the day, and then your professional tour guide from Cairo Top Tours will accompany you to visit the Edfu Temple or the Temple of Horus because it is the second largest temple in ancient Egypt after the Karnak Temple.

Then you will visit the Kom Ombo Temple, which was built during the reign of Ptolemy VI. This temple was decorated during the Roman era. The temple has 22 giant crocodiles that were found in the area near the temple.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4: Tour of the most important tourist sites in Aswan:

After breakfast, you will meet your private tour guide to enjoy the beauty of Aswan by visiting the most important archaeological sites in this charming city.

You will start the day by visiting the High Dam, which has great importance because it not only protects Egypt from flooding, but the country relies heavily on it to generate electricity.

You will visit the unfinished obelisk located in the waterfall area, which is a witness to the greatness of the ancient Egyptians in the field of art. The quarry of the unfinished obelisk was a source of granite ore for the Delta and other areas along the Nile River for several ages.

At the end of the tour, you will visit the Temple of Philae, which is located in the far south of Egypt as the last center of the ancient Egyptian religion for 4000 years. Philae was a sacred island and an important center of worship dedicated to the worship of the great goddess Isis, who, along with her husband Osiris and their son Horus, are among the most famous characters in ancient mythology.

When you are done with the tour, we will return you to the cruise to enjoy dinner. You will then watch one of the most beautiful and entertaining Nubian shows.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 5: Disembarkation and Back to your home

You will enjoy your last delicious breakfast on board the cruise, and then you will check out of the cruise. One of the tour leaders from the Cairo Top Tours team will transfer you to any hotel, station, or airport in Aswan. We hope you enjoyed your stay and tours with our company.

You can book an optional Abu Simbel Temple tour to see one of the most important and impressive archaeological sites that are still listed on the UNESCO list until now. (Optional tour)
