Cairo

Enjoy an exciting experience in Saqqara, full of antiquities left by our ancestors, such as the tomb of Ptahhotep. Learn more about this delightful tomb and the owner of the tomb, who was one of the wise men of his time. He left a great legacy of teachings included in his three famous papyri, in which he delivers his teachings to his son. These teachings are distinguished by their diversity and strict commitment to the rules of ethics and good behavior.

In Saqqara, you will also enjoy the Saqqara Step Pyramid, the most famous monument in the region. Also, during your trip, see the Kagemni tomb, more than 4,000 years ago, there are drawings in the tomb of the so-called Kagemni, the chief judge and minister during the time of King Teti, the founder of the Sixth Egyptian Dynasty, in the Saqqara necropolis, of animals and insects from the ancient Egyptian environment: a butterfly, a pig, a young calf, a locust, fish, and a hippopotamus devouring a crocodile.

During our day tour you will also enjoy the Giza Pyramids, the Sphinx, and the Valley Temple, which is the place where the pharaoh's body was mummified and his mummy was prepared, which was then transferred in a large procession to a temple right next to the pyramid, called the Mortuary Temple.

Day Tour to Giza, Saqqara and Felucca from Alexandria

To take you to Cairo, our guide will meet you outside your Alexandrian hotel. Savor one of our exclusive Saqqara trips. The Saqqara necropolis is one of the most important archaeological areas in Egypt, where there are tombs whose walls are covered with very beautiful and wonderful inscriptions, as well as pyramids, temples and serapeum tombs, and its name was derived from the god of the necropolis “Sukkar”, and recently, archaeological evidence that may lead to a tomb was found by the Egyptian archaeological mission, so we review the most prominent archaeological discoveries in the area, and we review the most prominent archaeological discoveries in the area.

After enjoying and learning about the pyramid of Djoser, the tomb of Kamgeni, the pyramid of Unas, the tombs of the nobles, and other landmarks, you will move to a local restaurant for a delicious Egyptian lunch to also enjoy gastronomy tourism in Egypt.

You will be transferred to the Pyramids of Giza. Learn about the pyramids of Khufu, Khafre and Menkaure, and learn about King Khafre, who took the title of Sa-Ra, meaning the son of the sun god Ra, and here he worships his father King Khufu as the sun god Ra, and in front of the Sphinx is the Sphinx Temple, which embodies the idea of solar religion in that era. See for yourself the splendor of the Sphinx sculpture and the Valley Temple.

A felucca trip on the Nile is not just a water adventure but a cultural exploration that blends the beauty of nature with a rich cultural heritage. We will explore the exciting cultural aspects that can be discovered during a felucca trip. You will be returned to your hotel at the conclusion of the trip.
