

Cairo Short Trip Package

Price Starting From : $200

2 Days

Cairo

Egypt

1

2

Every day

Cairo Short Tour Package

Cairo and Giza contain unique archaeological sites to enjoy your holiday in ancient Egyptian history. Enjoy your journey starting with a visit to the Pyramids of Giza and Saladin Castle. One of the most important landmarks of Islamic Cairo and one of the oldest military fortresses, its strategic location on a rocky hill adjacent to Mount Mokattam offers a magnificent view of all of Cairo's historic landmarks. The Saladin Fortress consists of the Ramla and Haddad towers, which your guide will provide you with information about.

You will be able to explore the Egyptian Museum, where seventy-three design projects competed for the construction of the museum building in Tahrir. In the end, the design of French architect Marcel Dornon, who designed a creative work, was chosen to be the first museum in the world built to be a museum rather than a building modified into a museum, and construction methods and modern display methods were used during that period. The architectural styles and elements of the museum were influenced by Greek classical art and architecture.

As for Khan El Khalili, you will be able to deal with Egyptian sellers directly and learn about their daily life and their most important customs, it is the street that never sleeps, always full of vitality, book now with Cairo Top Tours to enjoy all that is good in Egypt.

Overview

Inclusion

- Airport meet & greet services.
- Every transfer takes place in a non-smoking, private, air-conditioned car.
- A tasty Egyptian meal at a reputable neighborhood eatery.
- One night of bed and breakfast accommodations in a five-star hotel in Cairo.
- During this fantastic trip, you will be accompanied by a licensed guide.
- A complimentary water bottle
- During your trips to Egypt, you can stop for snacks if you'd like.
- The cost of the tour includes all taxes and services.
- Tickets for admission to the Egyptian Museum, the Pyramids of Giza, and the Coptic and Islamic Cairo.
- Savor a local mint tea or coffee in one of Cairo's most well-known cafes, such as Layali Elhussein Cafe or El Fishaue Cafe in Khan El Khalili.

Exclusion

- Tickets for international flights.
- Egypt requires a visa to enter.
- Beverages while eating.
- Any extras that aren't listed in the itinerary above.
- Thank you or a tip to the staff.
- The Great Pyramid of Cheops's entrance ticket from the interior.
- The pyramids are surrounded by camel rides. (You'll be charged extra.)
- Peak seasons like Christmas, New Year's, and Easter will see price increases.

Itinerary

Day 1 : Arrival and check-in

A member of our staff will be waiting for you in the airport's arrivals hall after you have finished your airport formalities. You will then be driven in an air-conditioned private car. You will be driven to your accommodation. He is multilingual, extremely talented, and knowledgeable about the area.

Our agent will complete any necessary paperwork, make sure you get the best accommodation, and provide you with information about the hotel's amenities in addition to the check-in procedure. In addition to giving you your hotel keys, our representative will go over your schedule and tell you about your next trip. All of this will be completed as soon as you arrive.

Day 2 : Visit the most important sites

Your experienced tour guide will meet you in the lobby of your hotel at the agreed time after your delicious breakfast to start your Egypt tour. Firstly, you will visit the three pyramids, firstly you will see the Pyramid of Cheops, the Great Pyramid.

And you will see the pyramid of Khafre, Khafre ruled Egypt between 2558 and 2532 B.C. He built the second pyramid of the Giza pyramids, and it is worth mentioning that he was married to four wives, including Kha-Marr Nabti and Mars Ankh III. You will see the Wadi Khafre temple, a temple built of granite stones next to the pyramid, where a bridge connects it to the pyramid, and there are several statues of King Khafre and the god Horus, known as the falcon god because he takes the shape of a falcon.

After lunch at a local restaurant serving Egyptian cuisine, we will take a tour of the Egyptian Museum. You will visit the Egyptian Museum, which marks 122 years since the opening of the Egyptian Museum in Tahrir, which was officially opened on 15 November 1902 and is considered the oldest and first national museum in the Middle East, the fifth building that houses Egyptian antiquities, and its long history is still illuminated today

The museum was designed by Hakian Effendi and directed by Yusuf Dia Effendi. At the same time, Sheikh Rifa'a al-Tahtawi, in charge of excavating and preserving Egyptian antiquities, ordered that no further excavations be carried out without his permission, and announced that he was strictly forbidden to leave Egypt and that all discoveries would be transferred to the Azbakeya Museum.

Then you will be transferred to Salah Al-Din Citadel and see the many Islamic monuments that have been added to it over the ages, including Mohammed Ali Pasha Mosque, Al-Nasser Mohammed bin Qalawun Mosque, Suleiman Pasha Al-Khadem Mosque, and Youssef's Well, in addition to a number of museums such as the police, Al-Jawhara Palace, and Al-Harbi.

Finally, you will be transferred to the airport or any preferred place in Cairo.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch