Day 2: Pyramids and Sakkara Tour

Your trip's second day will begin with an introduction from our licensed Egyptologist. After that, we'll travel to see the Valley Temple, the Great Sphinx, the pyramids of Chephren and Mycerinus, and the Great Pyramid of Cheops. Before taking a picture that will last a lifetime and enjoying a nice 15-minute camel ride at the Giza Pyramids, we will enjoy a panoramic view of the Giza Pyramids during our visit to the plateau. After breakfast at your hotel, you'll go on this Cairo day tours.

After you have enjoyed your delicious lunch, your guide will accompany you to Saqqara to explore the Step Pyramid Complex. This complex is famous for being the first building in the world made entirely of stone, known as the Djoser Pyramid. During the tour, you will have the opportunity to visit the Pyramid of Teti, which boasts the most remarkable interior among all the accessible pyramids. Additionally, you will be able to witness the daily life in ancient Egypt by visiting the tombs of the nobles at Saqqara, where the walls and corridors are adorned with vivid depictions of various activities.

We plan to be transferred to Memphis, which is the oldest capital of the pharaohs. It is situated approximately thirty minutes south of Giza and can be found in the modern village of Mit Rahina. Memphis is a rich city with the ruins of the ancient capital of Egypt.

You will be transferred back to your hotel in Cairo and overnight in Cairo.

A tour of the sound and light show in Giza is available upon request.

Meals: breakfast, lunch

Day 3: Fly to Luxor \ Nile Cruise Tours

You'll be driven to the airport early on the third day of your journey so you can board a domestic aircraft to Luxor. You will be welcomed upon arrival and taken onboard the luxurious 5-star Steinberger MS Minerva Nile cruise.

You will be led to experience the stunning Luxor East bank tours during the afternoon. You may see the magnificent Karnak Temple and the Luxor Temple nearby, which both exhibit the glorious history of Egypt.

We will return to the cruise ship for dinner and afternoon tea following our day trip to Luxor. On board, we'll stay the night.

A day consists of three meals: breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 4: Luxor Nile Cruise Sightseeing tours

Following breakfast, our next destination will be Luxor West Bank Tours. Touring the Temple of Hatshepsut and its mortuary temple, along with the gigantic statues of Memnon at the Colossi of Memnon Museum, will provide you with an enjoyable experience that is sure to be memorable.

As we sail to Edfu by crossing the Esna lock, let's enjoy lunch and afternoon tea

On board, a delectable meal will be served.

Day 5: Edfu Temple and Kom Ombo Temple

After having breakfast onboard, you can go to the Temple of Horus in Edfu, which is considered one of the most spectacular temples in Egypt and has been standing since the Ptolemaic era.

After having lunch back on the ship, we will proceed to Kom Ombo, where we will explore the combined temple dedicated to the deities Sobek and Harris.

Day 6: Aswan Nile Cruise sightseeing

Your sightseeing tour of Aswan begins with breakfast onboard before moving to Aswan Low Dam followed by a stop at the Granite Quarries. The Granite Quarries feature a massive unfinished obelisk which reveals Egyptian ancient stone-cutting methods used by builders.

Only one spot stands out through your tour where you will explore the Temple of Isis on Agilkia Island which honors the goddess Isis with its well-preserved reliefs and marvelous columns. The temple received careful relocation to its present site in order to safeguard itself from Nile floodwaters.

Return back to the ship for lunch while spending the afternoon at leisure before your next meal. Savor dinner while staying overnight aboard the ship at Aswan.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 7: Aswan to Cairo

After breakfast you will make your second journey to Cairo. Following breakfast aboard the Steinberger MS Minerva Nile Cruise, you have the opportunity to disembark for free time in Aswan. After your arrival at Aswan International Airport, we will organise your local flight to Cairo, and a staff member will welcome you at the airport before driving you to your Cairo hotel.

Guests will spend a night staying at a hotel in the city of Cairo.

Day 8: Cairo Tour

Your day starts with a trip to the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization where ancient artifacts including royal mummies at the renowned exhibition attract visitors. Old treasures at this site lead visitors through time to understand Egypt's magnificent past.

The Citadel of Cairo stands as a mediaeval fortress, which was the central governing power base for Egyptian royal authority. The Mosque of Sultan Hassan inside the citadel displays its glory as a masterpiece of Islamic architecture because it delivers spectacular perspectives of the historical Cairo skyline.

Your exploration of Old Cairo will lead to the Abu Serga Church, which stands as a Coptic landmark because tradition holds this place to be a Holy Family resting point during their Egyptian visit. Visitors can explore both the Church of St. Barbara and its stunning architecture as well as its vital relics positioned near one another.

The path of Coptic heritage leads you to visit the Ben Ezra Synagogue which preserves an extensive history alongside Prophet Moses legends. The fantastic state of preservation at this synagogue communicates how multiple cultural forces affected Egyptian history.

An optional Sound and Light Show adorns the evening performances at the Pyramids of Giza for those who are interested while describing ancient Egyptian monuments through stunning light displays and audio presentations.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 9: Alexandria Tour

Among Egyptian cities, Alexandria claims the rank of second largest behind Cairo and presents magnificent beachfront vistas together with vital historical landmarks. Tourists should make Alexandria a must-visit location because it displays a combination of historical landmarks from both ancient times and the present era.

Your tour starts with viewing the Ancient Roman Amphitheatre, where Romans used to host spectacles and social events during their time. Visitors to Alexandria can see the Fort of Sultan Qaitbay, which was constructed in the 15th century from the remains of the ancient Lighthouse of Alexandria, while enjoying spectacular Mediterranean coastline perspectives.

The Rock-Cut Necropolis of Alexandria delivers an intriguing blend of Egyptian, Greek, and Roman art, which can be observed in its detailed underground tomb artworks.

Future generations can find their way to knowledge and history at the contemporary New Library of Alexandria, which serves as a monument dedicated to the world-famous ancient library. You will come across the Al Morsi Abu Al Abbas Mosque, which represents outstanding Islamic architectural beauty.

Through the Alexandria Corniche drive, you will have time to see the city's beautiful shores while crossing the Stanley Bridge's elevated structure that provides spectacular Mediterranean Sea views.

The day of Alexandria exploration will lead you back to Cairo for an overnight rest.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 10: Cairo - Fly Back Home

Your departure from Egypt will start with breakfast before the airport transfer which terminates your incredible 10-day experience in this country.
