Giza pyramids, Saqqara, and Motor Boat ride from Aswan

Initially, our program is to visit the Giza Plateau to see the Pyramid of Khufu, also referred to as the Great Pyramid. It is believed to have taken more than 20 years to construct with the help of tens of thousands of laborers. Khufu's son built the Pyramid of Khafre, which is the second largest in Giza and stands out due to its distinctively slanted top. The Pyramid of Menkaure, the smallest of the three, was built by Khafre's son and is known for its red granite interior chambers and its casing made of granite. A motorboat ride is an enjoyable experience on the water. You can enjoy a motor boat ride on the water.

You will also have the opportunity to discover more about some of Saqqara's attractions, such as the step pyramids, the nobles' tombs, and the Serapeum. After that, we will drive to Cairo's downtown and take a leisurely 30-minute felucca ride down the Nile.

With specialized local guides, you will gain a comprehensive knowledge of Egyptian history and culture. It is an exciting and comprehensive experience that allows you to explore the many aspects of the wonderful Egyptian civilization.
