Day 1: Luxor East and West Bank Tours

During your Luxor and Aswan overnight trip from Cairo, our Cairo Top Tours representative will meet you at your Cairo hotel and move you to Cairo International Airport for your flight to Luxor, where you will visit the great ancient sites and begin one of our best Egypt day tours and excursions from Cairo. Your personal tour guide will meet you at Luxor airport to begin Luxor west bank tours as follows:

Colossi of Memnon:

The colossal standing statues of King Amenhotep III look very similar to the statues of King Ramses II at the Temple of Abu Simbel which was cut into the mountain.

The temple of El Deir El Bahri was built during the reign of Queen Hatshepsut:

One of the most beautiful temples in Luxor which is built by the strong woman Pharaoh Hatshepsut during the 18th dynasty, and dedicated to worshipping the god Amun Ra.who was the most important among all the gods of ancient Egypt.

The Valley of the Kings:

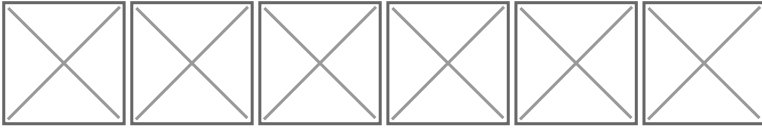

You will admire the west bank tours in Luxor thanks to the site of the Valley of the Kings, it was considered the funerary necropolis for the new kingdom kings instead of building huge pyramids like it used to be during the old kingdom period, contains more than 60 tombs cut by the pharaohs during the new kingdom from the reign of King Thutmose of the eighteenth, and during the nineteenth & twentieth dynasties. The Valley of the Kings got its fame from the discovery of the tomb of the golden king Tutankhamun in 1922 by Howard Carter, who found the tomb totally intact which was one of the greatest finds in the 20th century.

Continue your tours to the East bank of Luxor to view the Complex of Karnak Temple:

Karnak temple is considered the most prominent man-made religious center in the world, it is the largest temple in Egypt and even today remains are still found. The enclosure in which it is located is 2,400 meters boundary and is surrounded by an enormous wall of 8 meters in thickness.

After finishing your Luxor excursions, you will be transferred back to your hotel in Luxor and overnight

Meals: Lunch

Day 2: Aswan Excursions

First, our English speaking tour guide will meet you at the hotel lobby in Luxor to be transferred to start your amazing excursions in Aswan as follows:

The Unfinished Obelisk:

He was cut during the reign of Queen Hatshepsut, to be the largest obelisk in Egypt, where the obelisk reaches a height of about 41 meters but was never used or finished due to the death of the powerful queen who ruled Egypt for 20 prosperous years full of victories and military expeditions, in addition to the economic and political reforms she made.

The High Dam:

It was built in 1960 by former President Nasser to be one of the biggest engineering projects in the history of modern Egypt and provide the country with sufficient electric power in addition to saving Egypt's lands from being drowned every year as a result of the rising Nile.

The majestic Temple of Philae:

The Temple of Philae was located on the island of Philae, in the middle of the Nile River, but the temple was moved from its original site to the island of Agilika, after the construction of the High Dam, for fear of the flooding of the Nile waters and was built especially for the worship of the goddess Isis in 3 BC.

After enjoying your sightseeing in Aswan, you will be transferred to Aswan airport for departure to Cairo.
