Cairo

Please take advantage of our Egypt Tours Packages to see Egypt's biggest camel market while you're in Cairo. The Birqash Camel Market, one of the largest camel meat marketplaces in Egypt and all of Africa, is the destination of this intriguing adventure. Here, you can witness directly the frenzied exchanges and talks while taking in the vibrant commerce of camels coming from Somalia and western Sudan.

The market's location along the 40 Days Road, an old caravan route that connected Birqash and Sudan, gives your visit a fascinating historical backdrop. A wonderful chance to experience local culture and observe a unique aspect of Egyptian trade and tradition is to explore the Birqash market.

A thrilling camel ride at sunrise or sunset close to the Giza Pyramids is also a must-do activity for any traveler visiting Egypt; it's an excitement you should never miss.

For those interested in learning more about Egyptian culture, camel breeding, and shopping, a visit to the Birqash camel market is an entertaining day trip. Take in the exuberant ambiance, watch the bustling trade, and perhaps even discover one-of-a-kind finds to bring home as mementos.
