Day Tour to Giza pyramids, Saqqara, and Old Cairo

Our tour guide will come and pick you up from your hotel to start our tour.

First, you will have a trip to the Great pyramids in Giza where you will enjoy the sun and take a fancy photo with the sphinx which protects the pyramids and have a nice time surrounded by the history

Second, you will gather with your group and have a ride to Sakkara, Since the era of the First and Second Egyptian Dynasties, some Egyptian nobles began building their tombs in Saqqara. The first royal facility was built in Saqqara. it was an ancient mastaba built during the reign of King Khasekhemwy, the last king of the Second Dynasty, which is now known as the Director Bridge. Then, the monumental mastabas and pyramids were built in Saqqara. you can have great photos there too.

Third, you have a break and get a delicious Lunch in a good quality restaurant.

After that we will move to old Cairo where you will be able to see Al-Mu'allaha Church It was called Al-Mu'allaha because it was built on two of the ancient towers of the Roman fort (Babylonian Fort), which was built by Emperor Trajan in the second century AD. it is the oldest surviving church in Egypt. and also you will visit the church of saint Mary. The church was built by Tawfiq Bey Khalil Ibrahim, under the supervision of the Italian engineer, Lemon Gelli, in a miniature form of the famous Hagia Sophia Church in Istanbul, Turkey, after a vision in which Saint Mary announced that she would appear in her church.

and if we have time we will visit Khan El Khalili.

After all of that, you will be back to your hotel to have some rest and the tour guide will come back to take you on the cruise for an admirable dinner at the Nile view. and take you back to the hotel again.
