Itinerary

Day tour to Giza pyramids, Egyptian museum, and sound and light show

Our Cairo day tours contains three various attractive destinations, and each one of them completes a different part of the story of the great ancient Egyptian Pharaohs. Our representative will accompany you to meet your guide from the hotel by private air-conditioned vehicle.

Our first destination is the pyramids of Giza and the Sphinx:

The pyramids of Giza represent the Egyptian civilization and how the Egyptian Kings choose to immortalize their existence. They built the three pyramids to contain their tombs and treasures to return back to it in their second life. The massive pyramids include thousands of stones designated in very impressive formations that take your breath each time you look at them. Moreover, They built the Sphinx to have the soul to guard their possessions and prevent any interference or damage from their enemies. After that, you will be transferred to try the Egyptian Lunch meal from one of the high-quality local restaurants.

Our second destination is The Egyptian Museum:

The Egyptian Museum is a unique organization starting from the design itself that was made in the hands of spectacular engineers. It contains a huge number of possessions, jewels, and a fabulous collection of papyri, but not only this. It also contains massive statues of the royal Kings who built the pyramids and preserved royal mummies with their physical characteristics.

Our third destination is going to sound and Light show:

You will see and listen to the stories and the history of the Egyptian heritage narrated and displayed with modern technologies in enchanting choices and design of the colors of the show. It will lead you to totally different experience to feel the Egyptian history surrounding you.

Finally, our representative will accompany you to your hotel in your private car.
