Full-Day Tour in Luxor Egypt Itinerary

A typical full-day trip to Luxor, Egypt, takes visitors to some of the most well-known historical sites in the region. Seeing the pharaohs' tombs at the Valley of the Kings could be one of the agenda items. Another option is to see the stunning Hatshepsut Temple, which pays homage to the only female Egyptian pharaoh. Another attraction is the enormous complex of ancient temples known as the Karnak Temple Complex, which is notable for its eye-catching statues and columns.

Furthermore, there's a chance you'll get to see the magnificently lit Luxor Temple at night. With this plan, you may spend a single day fully immersed in Luxor's rich history and culture.

Luxor, the lighthouse of all antiquities lovers and the one that contains the smell of history, contains most of the whole world's monuments, it is known as the world's biggest open-air museum, but that is not a tiny drop near to describe this fantastic place. Nothing in the world compares to the scale and greatness of the monuments that have survived safely in ancient Thebes. in this itinerary you can have a remarkable full-day tour there.

Tour to The Most Charming Attraction in Luxor

The tour guide will pick you up from the hotel to an air conditional vehicle.

First, you will see The location of the Luxor temple on –Southern side - to the ancient Egyptians, it was named like that because it lay beside ancient Thebes. There are also about 3 kilometers to the south of Karnak Temple, where it was once connected with a processional way bordered by sphinxes. It was built in the eighteenth dynasty so that is strong proof that it is the oldest building there.

Then you will move to The Valley of the Kings is the place of burial tombs for many of the ancient Egyptian kings especially the rich nobles of the great kingdoms (the 18th, 19th, and 12th Dynasties).

The third stage you will visit is the Ramesseum temple which is found on the West Bank of Luxor. It is in early age was built as the mortuary temple of Ramses II. He was about 67 years rule and experienced the creation of many remarkable public buildings and architectural wonders.

we will continue to reach the Colossi of Memnon the two huge statues of Amenhotep III were named after the ancient hero from Greece called Memnon who was an Ethiopian king and eventually he died in a battle with Achilles

And finally, we will visit Howard Carter's house the British archaeologist, who added one of the valuest contributions to Egyptology. He discovered the large tomb of King Tutankhamun in 1922 in one piece. On November 4, 1922, Carter found the first sign of what proved to be Tutankhamun's tomb, but it was not until November 26 that a second sealed doorway was reached, behind which was the treasure.
