Sightsee the most well-known attractions of Luxor in a single day by taking a flight from Sharm El Sheikh. On the east bank, explore the Valley of the Kings and Hatshepsut Temple; on the west bank, see the Karnak and Luxor temples (optional). Although Luxor is sometimes referred to be the world's largest open-air museum, such title does not do this amazing location justice. Nothing compares to the majesty of ancient Thebes, that much is certain. Visit the city that served as the capital of the "New Kingdom Pharaohs" (1570-1090 BC), which is home to the greatest concentration of historic archaeological sites in the Nile Valley.

The East and West Banks of the Nile are home to the most significant sites. The stunning Temple of Karnak is located on the East Bank, which is known as the "City of the Living." The Colosseum of Memnon, the Valley of the Kings, and the breathtaking Queen Hatshepsut funerary temple are located on the West Bank, which is known as the "City of the Dead." We'll basically be doing two fantastic tours in one day when we go from East Bank to West Bank!
