Full-day tour to Luxor from Port Ghalib

We are pleased to offer you a full-day tour of the east and west banks of Luxor. The day will begin at Port Ghalib at 8 am. You will be picked up by one of our tour guides in your hotel lobby. The tour starts with the East bank tour where you will visit Luxor Temple which was built by Pharaoh Amenhotep III, then completed by King Ramses II. This temple has been well preserved even though it has suffered some damage due to earthquakes over time.

Then it's time for lunch! You'll have some time to relax and enjoy yourself before setting off again on your journey through the Luxor West Bank tour showing you some of the most famous sites, including the Valley of the Kings and Queens where many rulers from ancient Egypt were buried there, so you can see more than 60 tombs belonging to ancient Egyptian rulers.

Continues to visit the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut which was built by her during ancient times. The temple is named after queen Hatshepsut, who ruled Egypt in the 15th century BCE.

Later in the evening, you'll head back to Port Ghalib at your hotel!
