Itinerary

Day 1 : Arrival to Cairo and check in

On the first day, a competent representative from our company will greet you at Cairo International Airport and make arrangements for a private transfer in an air-conditioned car to your Cairo lodging. We will help you with every step of the check-in procedure there and reassess your vacation plans with you.

Day 2: Pyramids Sightseeing Tour

In the morning of your second day, we will pick you up in a private car after breakfast at your hotel to start your Cairo day tours. You may visit the Great Sphinx, King Khufu's Valley Temple, and the Giza Pyramids of Khufu, Khafra, and Mankawra as the trip begins close to the Great Pyramids. After lunch at a nearby restaurant, you'll go to Dahshour with your guide to take a tour of the region and hear about all of its characteristics before continuing on to Memphis. It was known as "Inebu-hedge" in antiquity, but the Greeks were unable to pronounce it, so they named the Egyptian capital after one of the nearby pyramids. This ancient city was known as Memphis.

Once the day is over, you'll be driven back to your hotel.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.

Day 3: Alexandria tour

Our tour guide will be there to welcome you in the hotel lobby at 6:30 a.m. for a pleasant Alexandria day tours after take your breakfast. We will take a plane from Cairo to Alexandria, Egypt's most important Mediterranean city.

Your first stop will be to the fifteenth-century stronghold known as the Citadel of Qaitbey. It may be found in the harbour. The old Alexandria lighthouse's ruins are still vividly visible. The Kom el Shogafa catacombs, the largest Roman cemetery with three floors dug out of rock, are a significant first-century archaeological site. On its three basement floors, you may find more than 300 mummies, the most common burial deities, and other Greco-Roman symbols.

Lunch is served in a seafood restaurant, where you may try some of the most well-known Egyptian dishes. You'll see the Serapeus Temple Ruins and Alexandria's Pompey Column after taking some time to unwind and rejuvenate at the Pompay Pillar. Some historians claim that this important Roman general was slain in battle and buried here.

At the end of the day, you'll go to the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, one of the most important cultural centres in the eastern Mediterranean. In the late afternoon, we will return you to your hotel in Cairo.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.

Day 4: The Egyptian Civilization National Museum and Cairo Tour

You will visit the Egyptian Civilisation National Museum after breakfast, which illustrates the enormous diversity of Egyptian civilization over time. You will be picked up from your lodging by our tour guide. Our guide will take you to Coptic Cairo after lunch.

See the churches built above the crypt where St. Joseph the Carpenter, Jesus Christ, and his mother spent more than three months. These churches are St. Sergius church and the Hanging church. The last building you will see is the Ben Ezra Synagogue, which was built before the ninth century and has long been used as a Coptic Church.

We'll take you back to your hotel after your vacation is done.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.

Day 5: The White Desert and Bahariya Oasis

On the fifth day of your White Desert Tour, which also includes a visit to The Bahariya Oasis, you will travel from Cairo. The tour may start anywhere, much like the majority of our Cairo day trips. It will take four hours to go from Cairo to the Bahariya Oasis in an air-conditioned vehicle.

We'll next go to the White Desert for a unique White Desert Safari after that. On our trip to Cairo, which is located south of the oasis, we will pass through the Valley of El Haize, a verdant town in the centre of the desert that is situated before the black desert. If we have time, we may stop and investigate the neighbouring water source.

Visit the Valley of Agabat to experience the thrill of sandboarding down the sizable sand dunes and the gorgeous petrified wood formations, as well as Crystal Mountain to see the historic quartz crystal formations. We will enjoy camping in the White Desert, where there is a strong chance of watching an amazing sunset, while your local guides prepare your lunch. Admire the gorgeous sky while spending the evening away from the pollution of the large cities.

As you rise the next morning, the most spectacular sight will be the sun rising in the White desert.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.

Day 6: White Desert Back to Bahariya Oasis

On the sixth day, you will be served breakfast while taking in the stunning vistas of the White Desert. You will next witness more breathtaking white limestone rocks as part of your day tours in Cairo, including the chicken formation, the rock that resembles the Sphinx, the rock that resembles a whale, and the hill that resembles a rabbit. We'll also take pictures of the desert's stunning natural features and the neighboring springs.

Next, as you travel through the Black Desert, which is home to magnificent mountains covered in small black volcanic rocks, you will be taken to Cairo.

We'll stop at Baharya to explore the salt lake, breathtaking sand dunes, and fruit orchards before continuing.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.

Day 7: Final departure

When it's time for you to leave Egypt on the last day, take your favorite breakfast and our tour guide will be there to pick you up in the hotel lobby at the scheduled hour. After that, you'll be taken back to the Cairo International Airport with a lifetime's worth of incredible experiences, images, and memories.
