Day 2: Giza Pyramids, Saqqara Necropolis, Memphis City

After enjoying a bountiful breakfast on your second day in Cairo, you'll meet a certified English speaker who can help you choose the best tours of the city. You'll visit the Pyramids of Giza and explore the building of Lincoln Cathedral.

Come and see the two other pyramids of Chephren and Mycerinus from the plateau while taking an optional camel ride in the Giza Pyramids, and you'll be able to get amazing photos of the whole view!

On your way to see the Valley Temple where King Chephren's body was mummified, you will pass by the third pyramid of King Mycerinus, and finally, you will take amazing, tricky photos near the Great Sphinx in Giza.

We'll now move on to the necropolis at Saqqara to see the Step Pyramid complex of King Djoser.

This visit to one of the well-preserved tombs of the nobility and the tomb of Kagemni, Enjoy a delicious lunch at a top-notch restaurant before being transferred to the ancient capital of Egypt, Memphis. You'll see the open-air museum with the alabaster sphinx of Memphis in the center, amazing statues of King Ramses II, as well as more artifacts from different stages of the Pharaonic era. After your day tour to Saqqara and Memphis is completed, you'll return to your hotel.

Day 3: Egyptian Museum, Coptic Cairo, Cairo Citadel, Khan El Khalili

You will have your breakfast meal at the buffet in the early morning and then meet your tour guide to start your amazing Cairo trip.

First, we will enjoy the Egyptian Museum tour, and then we will head towards the Egyptian Museum. The most complete exhibition of ancient Egyptian treasures is located here, and some of these treasures were also found in Tutankhamun's tomb.

The museum is located close to Tahrir Square, and the tour takes about two hours to explore the building on two floors with the most incredible artifacts from many eras of Egyptian history.

Transfer now to start one of the amazing Islamic Cairo trips. Inside the Citadel, you will admire one of the most impressive mosques, that of Mohamed Ali Basha. Our next stop on our Cairo day tours is the Coptic tour, which will take us to see the Coptic churches in the area of Old Cairo. This area is home to the largest Christian community in Egypt, and we can walk through its narrow tunnels and stop in the various churches until we reach that of St. Sergius, where the holy family took refuge in a crypt inside.

See also the Hanging Church, which is built suspended on two towers of the Roman fortress of Babylon, and the Synagogue of Ben Ezra before having a pleasant lunch and transferring to Khan-El-Khalili, the most important bazaar in all of Egypt, where you can walk among the scents of spices and the colors of the stalls. The souk is free and open until late at night, and we recommend stopping to have a typical tea mint or fresh mango juice in one of the oldest cafes in the area. You'll be transferred back to the hotel.
