Day 2- Tour to Egypt's Pyramids

We have made every effort to ensure that your first day in Egypt is the most pleasurable one. When you arrive, our Egyptologist tour guide will be waiting to assist you in exploring the Giza Great Pyramids. You can have an oriental breakfast at your hotel to start the day. We'll transport you to some of the most popular tourist destinations in Egypt in our air-conditioned, modern tourist car with a kind driver.

The best site to begin your journey around Egypt is the Great Pyramid of Khufu. Your Egyptologist is prepared to take you through the Giza Pyramids' entrance and provide you with an enlightening historical overview of this enormous structure. Next, Take some time to explore this intriguing historical site and discover the techniques used by the Pharaohs to build their magnificent pyramids. Lastly, enjoy a delightful detour to the Panorama Plateau and the Third Pyramid of King Menkaure, from which you may enjoy a breathtaking overview of the complete complex of pyramids at Giza.

Uncover the unique Sphinx, Guardian of the Pyramids, Keeper of Secrets, and the source of all long-kept secrets. A good venue to study embalming methods is the nearby Valley Temple.

Lunch for the day will be served in a quaint restaurant with a view of the pyramids after departing from the Giza Pyramids and arriving at the Saqqara Ruins.

Take a half-hour drive south of Giza to arrive at King Djoser's Step Pyramid and burial complex. This is an incredible opportunity that you should not pass up.

Proceed to the Saqqara columned corridor to see the earliest known limestone building. From the open court there, you can discover more about King Djoser and his loyal architect, Imhotep. Look at the Dahshour Pyramids from a distance.

See the Memphis Holy Triad, King Ramses' Colossi, and the Alabaster Sphinx after your visit to the Memphis Open-Air Museum. At 5:00 p.m., our driver and tour guide can return you to your Cairo hotel so you can unwind and savor your time in Egypt.

Day 3- Fayoum Day Tour

On your third day, you will have breakfast at the earliest possible time before our representative meets you at your hotel to transfer you to El Fayoum. Driving from the southwest side of Giza, close to the Giza Pyramids

When you reach El Fayoum, take a moment to admire the 4,000-year-old red granite Pharaoh Senussert in front of the city gates. Previously, you could see the wonderful water wheels that were once used to irrigate the area, continuing along the road until you reach the center of Faiyum.

When you visit Lake Qaroun You'll enjoy the stunning view of the birds and fishing boats, and you can take a break at the Uobege Hotel, which was once home to the Royal Palace of the Family of King Farouk. It's the perfect time for a lakeside lunch.

The day trip from Cairo to Fayoum is full of plenty of excitement. After leaving the Fayoum Oasis, you'll continue your trek to Wadi El Rayan, This is the only waterfall in Egypt, so it's well worth a visit. Afterward, you can enjoy an hour of sandboarding while admiring Wadi El Rayan's renowned, beautiful lakes.

Finally, you can take a shuttle back to Cairo and end the day at your hotel.

Day 4- Departure Day

After breakfast, meet your own driver and airport coordinator. They will chauffeur you to the VIP Terminal at Cairo International Airport, where you will board your departure aircraft. You'll take sweet memories of your trip to Egypt with you.
