Day 2: Giza Pyramids, Egyptian Museum, Fly to Aswan

Begin your day with a delightful breakfast at the hotel before meeting your accredited Egyptologist to enjoy your tour of the Giza Pyramids and the Egyptian Museum.

Start off the tour with the Giza Pyramids tour to witness the grandeur of the ancient Egyptian rulers who built immense structures to serve as burial tombs and their eternal houses through the afterlife. Just by looking at the great pyramids of Giza, you can imagine how advanced and prosperous were the Egyptians during the old kingdom especially the 4th dynasty of Egypt's history.

Your personal Egyptologist will explain the history of the era of the pyramids and the significance of ancient Egyptian religion while standing beside the tallest building in the world until the construction of the Lincoln Cathedral in 1311 A.D. The pyramid was built during the reign of King Cheops around 2500 B.C. and the two smaller pyramids belong to his son Chephren and Mycerinus who was his grandson.

Move to the plateau to get a panoramic view while having an adventurous camel ride around Giza Pyramids (optional activity) while your Bedouin guide takes amazing photos for you.

Visit the Great Sphinx which was carved from one stone block to symbolize power and authority as it takes the shape of a man-headed lion and the Valley Temple of King Chephren where his body was mummified before burial.

Move now to the famous Tahrir Square to see the largest collection of Egyptian antiquities inside the Egyptian Museum which is composed of two floors, the section where the golden collection of King Tutankhamen will amaze you.

You will enjoy your lunch in a good quality restaurant before being transferred to the airport to take your flight to Aswan. Meet our representative at Aswan airport and transfer to your hotel for check-in and overnight.
