Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival to Cairo

When you arrive at our Cairo hotel, our tour leader will help you with the procedures. After you've collected your luggage, he'll take you in our luxurious vehicle to your Four Seasons or Nile Kempinski hotel for the night.

Day 2: Pyramids, Saqqara, Dahshour

After a delicious breakfast at the hotel, you will be transferred to the Necropolis of Giza, where you will see the three pyramids of ancient kings, Cheops, Khafre, and Mikrenius, as well as the Great Sphinx. This is the most famous monument not only of ancient Egypt but of the entire ancient world.

If you visit Saqqara and the Step Pyramid of Djoser with him, you'll get to see some of the most amazing tombs in Egypt. You'll also get a chance to see the mastaba of Kagemni, one of the most important tombs from ancient times.

Then visit Dashur, where you can see the two pyramids built by Pharaoh Sneferu. Not only can you see the Red Pyramid, the first real pyramid in the world, but you also have the chance to go inside it.

then have your lunch at a local restaurant and get back to your hotel.

Meals: breakfast, lunch

Day 3: the Egyptian Museum, NMEC Museum

We'll have breakfast at the hotel in Cairo before going to the Egyptian Museum. Your professional guide will take you on a fascinating tour of the museum's impressive collection of Egyptian antiquities, including the golden treasures of the famous pharaoh Tutankhamun.

Then he will take you to the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization to see an incredible collection of 50,000 artifacts illustrating Egyptian civilization from prehistoric times to the present day.

then have a delicious lunch and return to your hotel.

Meals: breakfast, lunch

Day 4: the Citadel, Old Cairo

After breakfast, you will be driven to the Saladin Citadel, a fortress that was built between 1176 and 1183 AD to defend Cairo from the Crusaders and rebuilt by Muhammad Ali Pasha, whose mosque is a must-see.

After enjoying a delicious lunch at a local restaurant, you'll be able to explore some of Cairo's most famous churches: the Hanging Church and the Church of St. George the Martyr, both built into the walls of the ancient Fort of Babylon. The Church of Abu Serga (St. Sergius), where it is said the Holy Family took shelter in a cave, is also on the tour. And the remains of Cairo's oldest structure, the Fort of Babylon, could be its oldest structure.

This is a great place for tourists to visit. It's a popular tourist destination, and at the end of the day, you'll be driven to the old market of Cairo (Khan El-Khalili) to see how good your bargaining skills are.

You were taken back to your hotel with the utmost care.

Meals: breakfast, lunch

Day 5: Arrival to Alexandria

Our Alexandria trip starts with a delicious breakfast in your hotel room and a drive in our air-conditioned vehicle to the city. You'll see the beautiful sites Alexander the Great built while you're here!

On October 16, 2002, the new Alexandria Library was inaugurated, with space for eight million books. The main reading room is on eleven levels, and the catacombs are deep below the building. The Roman Amphitheatre is also located nearby. This library is a valuable resource for residents of Alexandria and visitors to the city.

The Alexandria National Museum houses an impressive collection of artifacts that tell the story of Alexandria. Recent finds from the sunken part of the city have been added to the collection, deepening the museum's already rich history.

The Citadel of Qaitbay is one of the most important historical sites in the Mediterranean region. It was originally built by the Mameluke Sultan Al-Ashraf Qaitbay in 1480 AD and has since undergone many improvements. Today, it is a highly visible and important citadel on the coastline.

We'll have a delicious lunch at a local restaurant in Al-Morsi Abu EL-Abbas, and then you'll be able to relax and drive back to your hotel in Alexandria (Hilton Alexandria) at the end of the day.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 6: AL-Alamien, Return to Cairo

After breakfast, we'll board a modern, air-conditioned luxury vehicle to begin our journey to the WWII remains and cemeteries of Al Alamein. The Battle of El Alamein was one of the defining battles of World War II and the scene of some of the most intense fighting of the entire conflict.

Military museums are a great way to learn about history, and the Military Museum in this town is no exception. It has a collection of more than 30,000 artifacts, including weapons, uniforms, and other items used by soldiers during the war. The museum also has a library with more than 1,000 books about the war. There's no better way to learn about this important period in history than by visiting the Military Museum.

then you will return to Cairo.

Day 7: Fly to Luxor, Nile Cruise

Enjoy your morning meal in your hotel before transferring to Cairo Airport to take your domestic flight to Luxor. Our representative will meet and assist you at Luxor airport upon arrival, and you'll be transferred to the Sonesta St.George Nile cruise boat for boarding and check-in to your cabin.

You'll have your open-buffet lunch served, and then you can enjoy the Luxor East Bank Tours.

The Karnak Temple is an awe-inspiring monument that is centuries old.

Luxor is a beautiful destination for tourists, and its temples are a must-see. One of the most impressive is the Luxor Temple, which overlooks the River Nile. It was originally built on the same site as a smaller temple dedicated to the cult of Amun.

Thank you for choosing to spend your afternoon tea or cocktail hour before dinner aboard the Nile cruise ship. This will give you a chance to enjoy the sights and sounds of Luxor before settling in for the night.

Meals: breakfast, lunch, and dinner

Day 8: Luxor West Bank

Start your day by enjoying a delicious breakfast on the Nile cruise boat, then head off on your exploration of Luxor. Your Egyptologist is waiting for you!

Luxor West Bank Tours will give you a unique perspective on the Valley of the Kings, a narrow valley full of red rock that is tucked between two mountains. This is the perfect place to explore the tombs of nearly 70 ancient pharaohs, including some of the most famous kings from the New Kingdom period.

Luxor sightseeing tours don't end there! Continue your journey to the Temple of El Deir El Bahari, erected by Queen Hatshepsut, an influential and powerful woman. The temple reflects the tumultuous relationship between Queen Hatshepsut and her son-in-law, Tuthmosis III, as we can see that several statues of her were damaged after her death. It's an amazing experience to see how history can be interpreted in different ways, and I'm sure that you'll enjoy touring this fascinating temple.

After touring the magnificent statues of Amenhotep III, known as the Colossi of Memnon, you'll be able to return home aboard your ship, making your way to the beautiful city of Edfu.

Have a delicious lunch and afternoon tea before dinner is served on the Nile cruise ship with the lively Galabeya party. Then spend the night in Luxor.

Meals: breakfast, lunch, and dinner

Day 9: Sail to Aswan

You will travel from Luxor to the Aswan Nile on the breakfast cruise in the early morning. A delectable breakfast will be served to you while you cruise the stunning Nile River.

The purpose of the Temple of Edfu was to safeguard the king's position and was constructed in honor of the god Horus.

You're going to love your delectable meal when you go back to the cruise ship.

I'm going to the ancient temple of Kom Ombo, which was constructed by two gods connected to the Greek deity Haroeris and the Egyptian deity Sobek.

Continue your early-morning sightseeing tour of Aswan while having dinner back on board.

Breakfast, lunch, and supper are served.

Day 10: Aswan Sightseeing, travel to Hurghada

Starting your day on a Nile cruise ship will give you a unique perspective on the city of Aswan, which was important during ancient Egyptian history. You can then spend the rest of the day touring some of the most famous highlights in the city.

Start your travels at the Temple of Philae, where the goddess Isis cult is centered and one of the major places where the myth of Osiris took place.

If you're looking to continue your exploration of Aswan, be sure to visit the Unfinished Obelisk in the granite quarries. This towering monument is thought to have been carved during the reign of Hatshepsut, and it's an impressive sight.

The High Dam is an excellent place to finish your Aswan sightseeing tour; it's one of the most important projects in modern Egyptian history and was implemented by famous president Nasser in the 1950s to help protect the country from annual flooding and to generate needed electric power.

You will disembark from your Nile cruise ship and be transferred by vehicle to Hurghada.

Upon arriving at Hurghada Airport, you will be greeted by our representative, who will accompany you by private car to the hotel. After check-in, you will enjoy an open buffet lunch. The rest of the day is at your leisure.

Meals: breakfast, lunch, and dinner

From Day 11 to Day 14

Every morning, you'll have breakfast, and then you'll have a free day to enjoy all the attractions and tours in Hurghada. Then you'll return to your hotel for dinner.

Day 15: Back to Cairo

After breakfast, return to your hotel in Cairo, accompanied by your tour guide.
Overnight in the Cairo Hotel

Meals: Breakfast

Day 16: Departure

After breakfast, you will be transferred by our representative to Cairo International Airport to take your flight back home. This will be the end of your 16-day Egypt itinerary. We hope you enjoyed each day of your Egypt travel packages.
