Itinerary

Day1- Tour To Pyramids Of Giza ,the Egyptian museum and old cairo.

On your first day in Cairo, we'll take you on a private day excursion to the Giza Pyramids and Sphinx . Our tour guide will pick you up from your hotel at 8 a.m.

Your first stop will be the Great Pyramid of Giza, which is the biggest and oldest pyramid in the Giza pyramid complex. The Pyramid of Khufu or the Pyramid of Cheops are alternate names for it. It is the oldest and only complete survivor of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World.

Your first stop on your Egypt tour will be the Great Pyramid of Giza—one of the most famous and impressive ancient structures in the the Giza pyramid complex. The Pyramid of Khufu or the Pyramid of Cheops on of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. This amazing monument is a fascinating and impressive site, and it is an excellent place to start your tour in Giza Complex.

We'll head over to the Pyramid of Chephren next. This pyramid, the second tallest and largest of the three ancient Egyptian pyramids at Giza, is home to the tomb of Fourth-Dynasty pharaoh Khafre (Chefren), who ruled between 2558 and 2532 BC. After that, we'll head to the Pyramid of Mykerinus.

We'll also visit the King Chephren Valley Temple. This will give you a better view of the Great Sphinx, a legendary guardian that watches over a large burial complex and has a lion body and the head of king Chephren atop it. Then, we'll go on a camel ride close to the Giza Pyramids.

Second, we'll visit The Egyptian Museum, which houses a priceless collection of more than 250,000 real artefacts dating back 5000 years. Additionally, there is a dedicated display for Tutankhamen there, which showcases a variety of artefacts, jewellery, and gold that were uncovered in 1920 during the excavation of his tomb.

We will drive to the Saladin Citadel, which Salah al-Din constructed in 1183 AD as a defence against Crusader forces. It is now a historically preserved area with mosques and museums, including the Mosque of Muhammad Ali Pasha. It is renowned for its fresh air and sweeping views of Cairo.

You will have lunch in a Egyptian restaurant.

Next, head to Old Cairo to explore some of Cairo's most famous landmarks, like the Hanging Church, Ben Ezra Synagogue, Church of St. Barbara, and Church of Abu Serga, one of the first Coptic churches in the city.

If you visit Khan el-Khalili, you'll enjoy one of the oldest and most fascinating markets in the Middle East. You'll explore the confusing maze of passages that has been the center of commerce in Cairo for centuries.

Back to your hotel in Cairo and overnight

Day2- Cairo to the Bahariya oasis and white desert

We will have a representative meet you at your hotel in Giza or Cairo to start your Bahariya Oasis. The trip to the White Desert and the Bahariya oasis lasts about four hours. As soon as you arrive at Bahariya Oasis, your safari guide will meet you and take you in a 4x4 Jeep and start your journey.

Take a trip to the dark desert by car. The name comes from the thin layer of black powder that coats all of the mountains, hills, and dunes there. At the El Haize oasis, you'll have lunch. The peaks of numerous mountains are covered in this powder.

A soak in a hot spring can help you relax before lunch and feel less stressed immediately. The heat causes a natural state of relaxation that can promote calmness, contentment, and silence. You'll make a stop at Gebel al-Izzaz, also known locally as Crystal Mountain. The hill's name, "the Jewel of the Desert," and its spectacular look when lighted by the sun are ascribed to the quartzite crystals that make up the hill. These crystals are unique to the area and were discovered a few decades ago.

If you're looking for a unique and stunning location to stay in the middle of the white desert, make your way to the Valley of Agabat. Here, you'll find a surreal landscape that's been carved out by millions of years of water. After your visit, take a sandboarding trip down the Wadi el Agabat by the Jeep 4x4 to see all the sights.

We'll take a tour of the White Desert National Park, which is one of the most well-known desert locations in Egypt.

The abundance of animal-themed images here makes for an elegant and persuasive gallery. A sphinx, a tent, camels, and mushrooms.

Then you will be transferred back to Cairo.

Day3- Cairo to Alexandria

Our day will start by meeting our Egyptologists at 7:00 am in your accommodation in Cairo and deliver you for about 220 kilometers northwest to Alexandria to begin your private tour of Alexandria from Cairo, which are an excellent site to start your day trip. Archaeologists believe that the Kom el Shoqafa catacomb was built in the second century A.D. and that it was utilized to hold the dead for the next 200 years. The history of Alexandria at this time saw a remarkable mingling of various cultures. The 4,000-year-old historical history of the mighty Egyptian kingdoms was present, of course.

We'll continue on to Pompey Pillar after that. The name's origin story makes reference to where the Roman general, who fled to Egypt and died there after losing a major battle with Caesar in Greece, may have been buried. The red granite column was probably built as a memorial to Diocletian the Great. It is currently Alexandria's tallest ancient monument at 25 meters.

Our next trip will be the Qaitbay Citadel, which Mamlouk Sultan Qaitbay constructed in the 15th century to defend the city from the threat of Crusaders. The ruins of the previous Lighthouse, which Ptolemy 11 had built in the third century a.c., were used to construct this spectacular Islamic masterpiece.

then we can eat lunch at an Egyptian restaurant.

and after that you will move to The Library of Alexandria will therefore be our next stop. It was reopened in October 2002 in an effort to resuscitate its glorious past. In addition to being a stunningly beautiful structure, it is a sizable complex that unites the arts, history, philosophy, and science. Additionally, the diversity of activities it offers has made it become a place for open conversation, understanding, and discourse.

return to your Cairo hotel and overnight

Day4- Final Departure

Breakfast will be provided at the hotel on the last day of your Tour. Please be sure to leave the hotel by 12:00 PM so that you have time to take one of our optional day trips in Cairo. After you've thoroughly enjoyed your four-day visit to Cairo, your private Egyptologist guide will transport you to the Cairo airport for your final farewell.
