Itinerary

Day 1 : Arrival to Cairo, Visit Giza Pyramids, Saqqara and Dahshur

When you arrive at Cairo International Airport our representative will be meeting you to transfer you to your hotel to leave your luggage so you can start your tour of the day.

You'll start your day by visiting the Giza Pyramids and the Great Sphinx, which are located in the Giza Necropolis.

Egypt day tours can help you to learn more about the Great Pyramid in Giza (Cheops Pyramid), the Pyramid of Khafre (Chephren), and the Pyramid of Menkaure (Mecerinus), as well as their associated pyramid complexes, and the Great Sphinx of Giza, and the Valley Temple after getting down from the high plateau.

You can enjoy a camel ride at the Giza plateau to experience the beautiful view from there also. (Optional Activity)

Transferring to Saqqara Necropolis will give you a chance to explore one of ancient Egypt's most famous sites. The necropolis is home to the Step Pyramid of Djoser, as well as the tombs of some of the country's most important nobles and for hosting the Step Pyramid of Djoser, one of the oldest pyramids ever built, as well as the Tomb of Teti who ruled Egypt during the 6th dynasty, and one of the tombs of the nobles belonging to Kagemni.

Now, it's time to explore the pyramids of the Dahshur archaeological site, the two pyramids there belong to King Snefru, father of King Cheops. You have the opportunity to enter both the Red Pyramid and the Bent

Pyramid in Dahshur, the necropolis that dates back to the beginning of the 4th dynasty of Egypt history.

Snefru, the founder of the Fourth Dynasty, ruled for 24 or 48 years, during an era of great achievement for Egypt. He was responsible for the expansion of foreign trade and the development of mining campaigns, and his engineering genius helped shape the pyramid complex at Dahshur. Today, visitors can explore these impressive structures thanks to Snefru's efforts -known as Saoirse in Greek (according to Maneton).

Enjoy your lunch in one of our local restaurants in Giza, then you will be transferred back to your hotel by our tour leader.

Meals: Welcome Drink, Lunch

Day 02 : Alexandria Day Tour from Cairo

You will start your wonderful tour of Alexandria from Cairo.

After breakfast, your personal tour guide and car driver will be waiting for you outside. You will begin your tour of Alexandria, which was built in 332 B.C. by the famous leader of the ancient Greek Kingdom Alexander the Great.

He established one of the largest empires in the ancient world, and it became the Capital city of Egypt for almost 1000 years until the Arab conquest in the 7th century. Alexandria remained the second most important city after Cairo

After arriving in Alexandria, you'll start your tour by visiting the Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, which was a private tomb of a rich Romanized Egyptian family that has been expanded in later centuries to become a burial for the common people of Alexandria. From there, you'll have a short drive to the great Pompey's Pillar, which is the highest-standing pillar in Egypt built by the people of Alexandria in gratitude for the Roman Emperor Diocletian who diverted a portion of the annual tribute of corn and grain to Egypt used to send to Rome to the relief of the citizens.

You will enjoy the breathtaking views of the Mediterranean Sea all the way to the Citadel of Qaitbay, which was established in 1477 A.D. on the ruins of the legendary lighthouse Pharos.

Enjoy your seafood lunch in a beautiful restaurant in Alexandria, and then move to a fantastic library in Alexandria – the Modern Bibliotheca of Alexandria.

This library is modern and has been rebuilt after a previous fire destroyed it.

Your private driver and guide will take you back to Cairo, stopping halfway through for some rest and coffee or tea.

Overnight at the hotel in Cairo.
