They will take the time to discuss your Egypt Easter Tour itinerary with you, ensuring that you are aware of the pickup times for each tour. As a gesture of hospitality, you will be treated to a refreshing welcome drink at the hotel.

Day 2: Pyramids and Egyptian Museum

Start your day off right with breakfast in the hotel's main dining area in Cairo and get ready for your incredible tour of the Egyptian Museum and Pyramids.

On the outskirts of Cairo, Egypt, you will meet your Egyptologist guide to begin your tour of the Giza Pyramids. As one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, they rank among the most famous archaeological sites in the entire globe.

Following that, you will travel to Cairo, Egypt, to see The Egyptian Museum, a fascinating establishment devoted to conserving and presenting the rich legacy and culture of ancient Egypt.

You'll head back to the Cairo hotel at the end of the day.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.

Day 3: Arrival in Aswan; Philae Temple, the High Dam, and the Unfinished Obelisk

Following a leisurely breakfast at your Cairo hotel, you will take a plane to Aswan, where you will spend the next day exploring. Your first destination will be the High Dam, an incredible engineering achievement that has had a profound effect on the area. It is situated in Aswan, Egypt. It was built above the Nile River to manage yearly flooding and offer a steady flow of water for irrigation and power production.

followed by a visit to the Unfinished Obelisk and the spectacular Philae Temple. An amazing historical site that sheds light on the obelisk-building process in ancient Egypt is the Unfinished Obelisk.

Next, get ready to be mesmerized by the magnificent temple honoring the goddess Isis, the Philae Temple. The temple, which was originally built on an island in the Nile River, was moved and rebuilt when the High Dam was built.

Meals Included: Breakfast and Lunch

You will return to the City Max Hotel in Aswan at the end of the day.

Day 4: Felucca ride and the Abu Simbel Temple

The majestic Abu Simbel temple with our Cairo Top Tours, located on the banks of Lake Nasser, is a remarkable archeological site in Egypt that you will see on the fourth day. Then take a felucca ride. The temples were first chiseled out of the mountainside during Pharaoh Ramesses II's reign. The trip will begin at 2:00 PM. From noon till dusk, you will go off on a felucca journey down the Nile. You will spend the night on the felucca. On the fifth day, breakfast and dinner will be served on the felucca.

Day 5: Kom Ombo and Edfu

After eating breakfast in the Felucca, you can get ready to depart the Felucca and head to Kom Ombo and Edfu by automobile. Situated on the banks of the Nile River, Kom Ombo is a historic province well-known for its monumental statues and antiquated temples. Explore Kom Ombo's well-known temples and take in the historic ambiance.

You can go on to Edfu, another city close to Kom Ombo, after visiting Kom Ombo. Edfu is renowned for its magnificent statues and historic engravings. You can visit this city and discover more about its fascinating culture and history.

After touring Kom Ombo and Edfu, you can head to Luxor for a stay at the Steigenberger Nile Palace Hotel in Luxor.
