Itinerary

Day 1 : Cairo – Siwa

first, The guest will meet his tour guide to begin his journey to Siwa. then, You will begin your trip in the cosiest, air-conditioned minivan, travelling to Siwa, which is about 600 kilometres to the northwest of Cairo, the capital of Egypt. One of Egypt's nicest beaches is in Marsa Matruh, which we pass by on the way to our lunch break at a nearby restaurant.

when Arrive at Siwa, check in, and spend the night there to prepare for the spectacular sights you're expecting to see the following day.

Day 2 : Siwa

After breakfast, we begin our tour of Siwa by going to the Cleopatra Bath, the area's most well-known natural water spring, where we may have a dip in its magnificent natural bath. There is no relationship between Queen Cleopatra and this water spring, and there is no explanation as to why it was named after the well-known Egyptian monarch. The temple of the Oracle of Amun, the most well-known and significant structure in Siwa, will be the second visit of the day. One of the most well-known oracles in ancient history resided at this temple. In order to get official recognition as the King of Egypt, Alexander the Great visited this temple in 331 BC.

We continue our journey to the mountain of the dead, or Gabal Mawta as the locals refer to it in Arabic, where numerous rock-cut tombs are found that date from the Greco-Roman era to the 26th Pharaonic dynasty. There are several fascinating tombs to see there, such as the tomb of Si-Amun from the third century BC and the tomb of Mesu-Isis that belonged to a priest from the 26th dynasty.

Spend the night in Siwa's hotel.

Day 3 : Siwa

-After a filling breakfast, we set off on an excursion to the Great Sand Sea in Egypt's Western Desert, which is located in the continent's largest desert. Enjoy the beauty of one of Egypt's most distinctive places, the magic of the Sahara, and the wonderful unending sand dunes.

We will now experience sandboarding, which provides us the exhilaration of sliding down sand dunes rather than snow, after passing past Dakrour Mountain. The Bir Wahid hot spring is the perfect place to unwind after a day of skiing.

-Stay the night in the Siwa hotel

Day 4: Siwa – Cairo

-After a delicious breakfast, we check out of the hotel and travel to Cairo in a private, air-conditioned minivan and check in your Cairo hotel, relax and overnight .

Day 5: Giza Pyramids Tour, Egyptian museum

A representative from our organisation will meet you in the lobby after your hotel breakfast to help you with your Cairo day excursions. Your journey will start with a thrilling visit to the Giza Pyramids, where you'll be stunned by the grandeur of these colossal monuments that were created during the old kingdom of ancient Egypt's history by the greatest monarchs and rulers.

Visit the Great Pyramid of Cheops, who was motivated to construct a large burial tomb by his father's challenging efforts, and King Snefru, who established the 4th dynasty and owned two enormous pyramids at Dahshur. Next, proceed to the high plateau for a breathtaking view of the three pyramids, including the pyramids of Chephren, who succeeded King Djedefre and was the son of Cheops.

After having the choice to ride a camel on the plateau around the Giza Pyramids, it is now possible to see the Great Sphinx at Giza, a figure of a man with a lion's body that is supposed to have been created for King Chephren himself because it is situated within his funeral complex. Enter the Valley Temple next, where the monarch was mummified before being buried.

After your 2-hour tour is over, continue your journey in Cairo by visiting the Egyptian Museum to see the largest collection of Egyptian artefacts in the whole world.

Have lunch at a fine dining establishment before being driven to the Islamic Khan El Khalili neighbourhood for one of Cairo's best walking tours and a close-up look at the inhabitants. Upon completion of your Cairo City Tour, you will be transported back to your hotel for the evening.

Day 6: Final Departure

Your holiday in Egypt comes to an end today, and we really hope you enjoyed our Egypt Day Tours. You will be driven to Cairo International Airport for your return flight.
