Itinerary

Day 1: arrival day.

On your first day in Egypt, you'll be met by an experienced tour guide from Cairo International Airport. After changing and settling in at your hotel, you'll be on your way the next day!

Day 2: Giza Pyramids Tour, Saqqara, Memphis.

After enjoying your morning meal, you'll be taken on a tour of your first stop of the day.

Giza pyramids are some of the most distinguished monuments on Earth, with a distinctive geometric shape that makes them stand out from the crowd. Each side of these pyramids constitutes a pyramid, meaning that each edge, base and vertex of a triangle is part of the structure. This design allows the weight of the pyramid to be evenly distributed, which makes the pyramids incredibly sturdy. In all, there are 138 pyramids located in Giza and the largest of these is the pyramid of Khufu.

The Saqqara Tomb of King Hetepe Sekhemwi or Ra Neb Neb Tomb of King Ni Natjar Buried Pyramid, Funeral Complex of King Sekhemkhet, Director Bridge, and Funeral Complex of King Khasekhemwy are all incredible examples of ancient Egyptian architecture and engineering at their finest.

The city of Memphis is named after the pyramid of Pepi, the second pharaoh of the Old Kingdom. It has been in use by the Coptic people for centuries. The first ruling family, the Narmer Dynasty, was founded here by a strong army and the city's important work of protecting the country. Today, Memphis is a thriving metropolis with a rich history.

Pompey's pillar:

As for its current name, "the pillar of the masts", it dates back to the Arab era, as it is believed that it came as a result of its towering height among 400 other pillars, which resemble the masts of ships, and that is why the Arabs called it "the pillar of the masts", and later became "the masts", according to the Governorate website. Alexandria. Sep 26, 2020

kom el shouqafa:

The area was named by this name due to a large number of pottery remains and quarries left by visitors during their visit. Excavations began in this area since 1892, and the cemetery was only found by chance on September 28, 1900.

Qaitbay citadel:

The construction of the Qaitbay Citadel dates back to AH 882 / AD 1477, when Sultan al-Ashraf Abu al-Nasr Qaytbay ordered the construction of a great tower at the site of the ancient Lighthouse of Alexandria, at the eastern edge of Pharos Island, according to the website of the Egyptian Ministry of Planning, Follow-up and Administrative Reform.

bibliotheca of Alexandria:

the old one got on fire in 48 BC. AD Julius Caesar burned 101 ships that were on the shore of the Mediterranean in front of the Library of Alexandria after Ptolemy the Younger, Cleopatra's brother, besieged him after he felt that Julius Caesar was supporting Cleopatra against him.
