Itinerary

Day1- arrive cairo, pyramids,old cairo and papyrus institute our tour leader will pick you up from Cairo airport where our licensed tour guide will be waiting for you in an air-conditioned vehicle. To transfer you directly to the Giza Pyramids in the Necropolis of Giza, to see the Khufu, Khafra, and Mankaura Great Pyramids, and to enjoy a camel ride tour of the region to discover the mesmerizing Giza Plateau.

then we will visit The Papyrus Institute where we will learn about the ancient Egyptian craft of manufacturing papyrus after that. After learning about the production of papyrus, we'll get the chance to create our own papyrus scrolls.

Then, it will be time for lunch in a nearby neighborhood restaurant in the heart of Cairo. After this brief rest, we'll head to the old Cairo to explore its incredible architecture, Coptic Cairo, Islamic Cairo and Al-Azhar, and Khan El Khalili to cap off our exhausting day.

then we will return you to your Cairo hotel check-in and overnight.

Day 2 - fly to luxor- Luxor Museum & Mummification Museum Tour

after breakfast, our tour leader will pick you up from your hotel, check out and transfer you to Cairo airport to catch your flight to Luxor, when we arrive here, your tour guide will transfer you to your Luxor hotel and relax, then we will start our journey the first stop You'll go there It's astonishing how entertaining Luxor Museum is. The Brooklyn Museum of New York built displays of ceramics, jewellery, furniture, statues, and stelae. They contain a carefully chosen mix of artefacts from the Necropolis and Theban temples. There are other Tutankhamun artefacts on display, including a cow-goddess head from his tomb.

The Mummification Museum is the ideal site to learn about the most potent pharaohs' secrets after that. A fascinating collection of creatures that have been mummified exists. The museum houses a number of mummies of people and animals in addition to the instruments and canopic jars used for the procedure.

then we will have a lunch at local restaurant, and return you back to your Luxor hotel and overnight.

Day 3- Day Tour to East bank of luxor after breakfast, our tour leader will pick you up from your hotel to visit The architectural splendor of the Valley of the Kings, where many kings are interred, was used as a place of burial. The tombs of King Tutmosis I, King Tutmosis III, Tut-Ankh-Amon, King Ramses VI, King Mrenptah, and Amonhotep II are the ones that are well known.

then transfer to visit The only pharaonic woman to rule ancient Egypt, Queen Hatshepsut, the daughter of Thutmosis I, who constructed the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, also known as El Dir El Bahari. She ruled Egypt for nearly 20 years during the 18th Dynasty (about 1490–1469 B.C.), during which time she erected the temple.

then we will visit The Colossi of Memnon, which are the remains of Amenhotep III's mortuary temple.

after that, we will have a lunch at local restaurant and return you back to your hotel overnight.

Day4- Day Trip to Edfu and Kom Ombo from Luxor

after breakfast, check out, and our tour leader pick you up from your hotel to visit The Temple of Horus, one of Egypt's most exquisite and well-preserved Temples, which is the most significant structure in Edfu.

then transfer to visit The Kom Ombo Pylon once had two entrances, but the left side has totally vanished, leaving just the lowest portions of the right-wing and the center pillar standing. The gods Sobek, Hathor, and Khons, 52-line hieroglyphic writing, and a relief of the Roman Emperor Domitian wearing the crowns of Upper Egypt may all be seen on the front wall to the right as you approach.

after that, we will have lunch at a local restaurant and transfer you to your Aswan hotel and overnight.

Day5- Aswan high dam and the Abu simbel temple

Start your day tour in Aswan by getting picked up from your hotel or by our tour leader then Drive to the High Dam of Aswan, which was constructed in the 1960s and was a feat of engineering. You can see the Kalabsha temple in the south and the enormous power plant in the north from the top of the High Dam as you look across Lake Nasser.

To enjoy an Abu Simbel day trip from Aswan, take a 3-hour journey to the south in an air-conditioned vehicle. The two temples at Abu Simbel are regarded as the pinnacles of ancient Egypt because of their distinctive architecture. They display the splendor and majesty of the future Kingdom. In order to safeguard these temples from flood, the Egyptian government and UNESCO made the decision to work together. The four global gods Ptah, Re-Her-Akhtey, Amun-Re, and Ramesses II were honored at the temple that bears their names. The Sun Temple of Ramses II is another name for the enormous Abu Simbel temple.

At a symbolic fashion, Ramesses II, Nefertari, Hathor, and the Sun God are united as one in the Temple of Queen Nefertari, which is also known as the Temple of Hathor because she was the Sun God's wife. Spend about three hours there before returning to Aswan.

then return you back to your hotel, have lunch, and overnight

Day6- Visit Philae Temple and fly to cairo

Day8- arrive Alexandria

in the morning after breakfast, check out, and our tour leader transfer you to Alexandria in a modern and air-conditioned car ,a day trip that begins with a stop at Kom el Shoqafa's catacombs, which are regarded as one of the wonders of the Middle Ages. With three floors of graves that can hold up to 300 bodies, it is the biggest known Roman burial site in Egypt. The cemetery was initially created as a private burial ground for a single-family before being transformed into a public one. The tombs' architecture is reminiscent of Greco-Roman designs. This is evident in the wall artwork, which displays an original fusion of creative traditions from Egypt, Greece, and Rome. People are interred here in urns for their cremated remains, shelves, and sarcophagi.

Then, you'll proceed to (Qaitbey's Citadel), which is regarded as one of the most significant defensive strongholds not only in Egypt but also along the Mediterranean Sea coast, for a photo stop. The Citadel is located at the eastern point of Pharos Island, near the entrance to the eastern harbour, and it formed a significant portion of Alexandria's fortification system in the 15th century A.D. It was built exactly where the renowned Lighthouse of Alexandria, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, formerly stood.

After that, you'll experience the expansive Montazah Royal Palaces and Gardens, which belonged to Mohamed Ali Pasha's royal dynasty from Khedive Abbas Helmy II to King Farouk I

The Modern Alexandria Library, which replaced the Old Library, which was known for its enormous collection of books on many sciences and literary genres, will serve as the final stop on our magnificent journey.
