Ismail »who included him in the soldier's corps, and the signs of manhood appeared on him from courage, daring, and good eyesight, which qualified him for promotion to the rank of block Bashi. And when he finished the jihadi period, he engaged in commerce in the year 1215 AH / 1801 CE.

and it is lunch time now you will have a rest in one of our best Egyptian Restaurants and the journey will be continued to visit Salah El Din Citadel he started the construction of this castle on the Mokattam Mountain in the year 572 AH / 1176 AD in a place known as the Dome of the Air, but he did not complete it during his life. To rule Egypt until the era of Khedive Ismail, who moved the seat of government to Abdeen Palace in Khedive Cairo.

Then you will go to the market of Khan El Khalil The clothing stores in this market lead the majority of visits, especially the popular clothing stores, as they reflect images of the heritage and culture of this city and are characterized by beautiful colors and embroideries. Women's and men's clothing stores. and it is not the only thing you can do there.

Then you go back to the hotel.

Day 4: Visit The City of Luxor and The East Bank

After completing your breakfast you will make your bags to catch a flight to Luxor from Cairo airport and after a while, you will start a new Egypt Luxury Tours adventure in a new country which will start with The Temple of Karnk The Egyptians celebrate the phenomenon of the sun perpendicular to the Karnak Temple in Luxor on December 21 of each year, from six to eight in the morning, a phenomenon that reflects an aspect of the greatness of the ancient Egyptian, who was familiar with astronomy and the movement of the sun accurately.

Then you will visit The Temple of Luxor The Luxor Temple was not built by one king. The oldest building in it was a cabin dating back to the reign of Queen Hatshepsut (about 1473-1458 BC), while the heart of the temple was built during the reign of Amenhotep III (about 1390-1353 BC). One of the inner chambers contains a group of scenes known as scenes of divine birth, as it tells us the story of the king's lineage to the god Amun-Ra himself. The heart of the temple is preceded by a colonnaded hall, in front of which is a courtyard surrounded by columns.

return to your Luxor Nile cruise.at the night to see the great view of the Nile.

Day 5: The West Bank of Luxor

then your Egypt luxury tour in Luxor will finish with a great tour to the west bank which contain Valley of the Kings The tomb of King Khoper Khopre I No. 23 in 1816 AD and the tomb of King Seti I No. 17 in 1817 AD were discovered by the archaeologist Belzoni. this is the lunchtime to have some rest.

The next destination is The Hatshepsut Temple The temple was built during the 15 years of Queen Hatshepsut's reign, between the seventh year of her reign and the 22nd year of her reign. Senenmut, the head of the court during her reign, is the one who designed it and supervised its construction. Senenmut has some sites on the temple that indicate this, and its tomb is located under the first floor of the temple, and it extends about 97 meters in the mountain and ends with the coffin room at a depth of 43 meters. The tomb of Senenmut was found and the tomb was named TT353. He also participated in the construction of the temple «Habuseb» and «Nahi» head of the treasury, and «Zihuti» overseer of the House of Jewelry. This is evidenced by their names mentioned on the walls of the temple.

Then we will move to Colossi of Memnon From the moment when the building began until this time, the building has undergone many developments in terms of use, and the shape of the building has also changed so that it is estimated that the courtyard was originally covered by a large planetarium.

And after this long tour, you will go back to the cruise to have a rest.

Day 6: Edfu and Kom Ombo Temples

After finishing breakfast on board the cruise you will start the day with the Edfu temple visiting which is an Egyptian temple located on the west bank of the Nile in Edfu, Upper Egypt. The city was known in the Hellenistic and Latin periods as "Apollonopolis Magna", after the chief deity Horus, who was identified as Apollo under [[Interpretation of] Graeca]] It is one of the best-preserved shrines in Egypt. There are also "important scenes and inscriptions of sacred dramas that relate to the ancient conflict between Horus and Seth and have been translated by the German Edfu Project.

Then Komombo Temple, The small town of Kom Ombo is located on the eastern side of the Nile River, 45 km north of the city of Aswan and 800 km south of the Egyptian capital, Cairo. And that small city is surrounded by fields of sugar cane and corn, but at the same time there are many temples of the pharaohs and ancient Pharaonic monuments, among them the Temple of Kom Ombo, and the Greco-Roman temple in Kom Ombo that overlooks directly the Nile, which makes any Nile cruise approaching area, you visit the temple.
