Day 2 : Siwa

After breakfast, we head to the Cleopatra Bath, the most well-known natural water spring in the area, to start our tour of Siwa. Here, we may have a soak in the spectacular natural bath. There is no explanation as to why this water spring was given the name Queen Cleopatra, and there is no connection between the two. The second stop of the day will be the temple of the Oracle of Amun, the most famous and historic building in Siwa. This temple housed one of the most well-known oracles in antiquity. Alexander the Great visited this temple in 331 BC to obtain recognised as the King of Egypt.

We go to the mountain of the dead, or Gabal Mawta as the locals call it in Arabic, where a great deal of rock-cut tombs is discovered that date from the Greco-Roman era to the 26th Pharaonic dynasty. There are numerous noteworthy tombs to view there, including the third-century BC tomb of Si-Amun and the 26th-dynasty priest's tomb of Mesu-Isis. Relax in Siwa's hotel for the evening.

Having passed Dakroul Mountain, we will now engage in sandboarding, which offers us the thrill of sliding down sand dunes as opposed to snow. After a day of skiing, relaxing in the Bir Wahid hot spring is ideal.

-Spend the night at the hotel in Siwa

Visit the Great Pyramid of Cheops, whose ambitious endeavours inspired him to build a sizable burial tomb, and King Snefru, who founded the 4th dynasty and possessed two sizable pyramids at Dahshur. After that, head to the high plateau for a beautiful view of the three pyramids, including the Chephren pyramids.

It is now possible to visit the Great Sphinx at Giza, a statue of a man with a lion's body that is said to have been constructed for King Chephren himself because it is located within his funerary complex, after having the option to ride a camel on the plateau around the Giza Pyramids.
