Itinerary

Day 01: Arrival in Alexandria

We will meet you at the airport and help you with everything. Then, the representative will take you to the Hilton Green Plaza hotel to check you in.

Day 2: in Alexandria

We will go to a monument in Rome called Pompey's Pillar. It is made of bronze and is about high.

We are going to visit the Citadel of Qaitbay. It is a big and interesting place. The Citadel of Qaitbay is a 15th-century fortress located on the Mediterranean Sea coast in Alexandria, Egypt. It was built by Sultan Al-Ashraf Sayf al-Din Qa'it Bay. The Citadel is situated on the eastern side of the northern tip of Pharos Island at the mouth of the Eastern Harbour.

The Alexandria Library was a really big and important library from ancient times. It was part of a much larger research institution called the Mouseion. The Mouseion was dedicated to the Muses, the nine goddesses of the arts. The idea for a universal library may have come from Demetrius of Phalerum, an exiled Athenian statesman living in Alexandria. However, the Library probably wasn't built until the reign of Ptolemy II Philadelphus. The Library quickly acquired many scrolls because of Ptolemaic kings' aggressive and well-funded policies for acquiring texts. It is still unknown exactly how many scrolls were housed at any given time, but estimates range from 40,000 to 400,000.

We'll have lunch on the last day of our trip, and then we'll go back to our hotel.

Day 3: go to Cairo

We will start our day with an early breakfast. After that, we will prepare for the trip to Cairo and see its beautiful and impressive sights.

We're going to visit some old buildings. The Pyramids are one of them. The Pyramids are a type of large, ancient building made of many different kinds of materials, including stone. They are very tall.

We're going to the Egyptian Museum to see some of the oldest and most interesting artifacts. There are statues and paintings, and even mummies!

We'll have our last lunch on the final day of our trip, and then we'll go back to our hotel in Alexandria.

Day 4

We will take you to the airport and then we'll bring you back to your home country for a delicious breakfast.
