Day 2: Giza Pyramids Tour, Saqqara Necropolis, Memphis City

After having your 1st tasty breakfast at the hotel, our tour guide will meet you at the hotel lobby to accompany you during your Cairo day trips, begin with the impressive tour to Giza Pyramids where you will be amazed by the greatness of these enormous structures built during the old kingdom of Egypt's ancient history by the most famous kings and rulers of ancient Egypt to be the proof of the accomplishments they achieved almost 5000 years ago, by the securities of the Nile River which rendered the basic life requirements to create such a great civilization that still puzzles historians till now.

Visit the Great Pyramid of Cheops, who was inspired by his father's ambitious efforts to build great burial monuments, King Snefru who was the originator of the fourth dynasty and owner of 3 great pyramids in which two of them located in Dahshur, not very far from Giza, King Cheops (Khufu in the ancient Egyptian language) established his pyramid using nearly 2 million blocks of limestone to be his permanent house from which he can rise to the sky, the pyramid stood 146 meters height and 230 meters long.

Proceed to the high plateau to have a magnificent panorama of the three pyramids including the pyramids of Chephren who was the son of Cheops and the successor of King Djedefre, made his pyramid somewhat smaller than his father's, with a height of 136 meters, and Mycerinus, owner of the third and the smallest among the Pyramids in Giza.

After having the opportunity to enjoy an optional camel ride in Giza Pyramids, you will now see the Great Sphinx of Giza which is a statue of a man with a body of a lion that is thought to be made for King Chephren himself for being within his funerary complex, enter the Valley Temple where the mummification method of the king took place as part of the burial rites.

Saqqara trips now are your next station to see the Step Pyramid, the first pyramid built by King Djoser totally out of stone, Djoser was the 2nd king of the 3rd dynasty, the pyramid is located in the Saqqara Necropolis and is recognized as an important stage of the development of building royal pyramids as it consists of 6 steps with the burial chamber below. You will also enter one of the pyramids within the site, the pyramid of King Teti from the 6th dynasty, and visit one of the tombs of the nobles built for the king's son in law, the tomb of Kagemni who was the son-in-law of King Teti and the vizier of justice during the king's reign.

Resume your tours in Cairo by transferring to the site where the first capital of Egypt was, the ancient city of Memphis, now identified as Mit Rahina and you will see the open-air museum with the alabaster sphinx and the enormous statue of King Ramses II whose mummy was discovered in 1981, he ruled Egypt during the new kingdom.

You will have a delicious lunch in a good quality restaurant viewing the pyramids and the Sphinx before being transferred back to the hotel.
