At Aswan airport or train station, our representative will meet you and transfer you in an exclusive air-conditioned vehicle to your hotel and start your 4 days with Royal Viking Nile Cruise from Aswan to Luxor. After Lunch starts your Aswan excursions to the Aswan High Dam, constructed in 1960 to protect Egypt from the annual floods of the Nile River.

Continue to visit the Unfinished Obelisk, famous for its red granite that was used in many famous monuments like the pyramid of Mycerinus and the Valley Temple of King Chephren that you can see during your Giza Pyramids tour. The most famous obelisk relates to Queen Hatshepsut, one of the queens who ruled Egypt in the 18th dynasty during the new kingdom of ancient Egyptian history, she was the wife of King Tuthmosis II and the first woman in all of Egypt's history to rule the country. Others believe that this obelisk relates to Queen Nefertiti, wife of King Akhenaten, but no evidence yet to prove that theory.

Continue Aswan tours to visit the Temple of Philae, dedicated to the goddess of magic, Goddess Isis, and located on the island of Agilika after being transferred from Philae Island due to the building of the High Dam. Transfer to the cruise ship back again and enjoy your dinner with the joy of the captain's welcome drink.

Day 2: Kom Ombo and Edfu Temples

Breakfast on board the cruise ship before starting your excursion to visit the Sobek temple in Kom Ombo, an unusual, completely symmetrical building with two entrances, two hypostyle halls, and two sanctuaries. This is because it is dedicated to two gods of ancient Egypt: the left side is dedicated to the falcon god Horus (meaning Horus the old or the great) and the right temple to Sobek, the local crocodile-headed divinity, one of the evil figures according to the ancient Egyptian religion.

Lunch aboard the cruise ship while sailing to Edfu.

Transfer then to visit the Temple of Edfu, dedicated to god Horus who was the son of Osiris and protector of kingship, is the best-preserved among the temples in Egypt and was called the House of Ra, the father of all gods in the pharaonic era. Continue your Luxor east bank tours to visit the Temple of Karnak, in ancient Egypt, especially during the New Kingdom, which was the most prominent religious center.
