Itinerary

Day 1: Welcome to Luxor Tour - Nile Cruise.

Our representative will meet you at the Luxor airport or train station and transport you to your Nile Cruise in a private A/C vehicle. Embarkation. Afternoon exploration of Luxor's East Bank includes the Karnak Temples Complex, which are the largest monuments ever built in human history. The main structure is that of the god Amun Ra, which was regarded as the house of God on earth. The older structures date back to the middle kingdom, however, there are some references to earlier structures dating back to the 3rd dynasty.

Later, you'll see the Temple of Luxor, which was begun by one of the 12th dynasty's monarchs and completed by the well-known pharaoh Ramses II. This temple, like Karnak, was dedicated to the main/chief god Amun Re and was located in the center of ancient Thebes. You will be transferred back to your ship for rest and refreshment after your day trip. The staff will put on Egyptian folklore entertainment at night. Dinner will be served, followed by an overnight stay in Luxor.

Day 2: Luxor West Bank Tour.

On the Nile cruise, breakfast is served. After that, you'll begin your spectacular trip in Thebes, the sacred region, by exploring the west bank of Luxor, which includes the Valley of the Monarchs, which is considered the royal cemetery of the Theban kings and rulers of ancient Egypt, as well as the burial site of our Pharaohs.

After that, you'll go to Deir El Bahari to see the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut. This temple is regarded as one of ancient Egypt's most magnificent examples of architecture. The excursion will conclude with a visit to the Colossi of Memnon, which belonged to King Amenhotep III. After that, you'll return to your cruise for lunch. The afternoon is yours to do as you like. The trip includes dinner and an overnight stay.

Day 3: Nile Cruise Tour (Edfu Temple)

Breakfast will be served on board your Nile cruise. Then your tour guide will lead you on a mystery adventure to a mysterious world. Today's guided tour begins with a visit to one of Egypt's most beautiful temples, the Temple of Horus at Edfu, which is also one of Egypt's best-preserved temples. You'll be returned to your ship after that. During the trip to Kom Ombo, lunch will be served on board. In the afternoon, you'll visit the Temple of Kom Ombo, where the two gods Sobek and Haroeris were once worshipped.

Return to the ship and have your meal. Enjoy the view from the sun deck of the Nile's distinctive environment. The ancient Egyptian civilization arose and prospered on its banks. During the sailing to Aswan, a dinner meal will be served on board. Arrive in Aswan late in the evening and spend the night.

Day 4 : Aswan Day Tour.

On board your ship, breakfast will be served. Later, you'll accompany your Egyptologist tour guide to explore Aswan, including the High Dam, which was built by Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser in 1960 AD to safeguard Egypt from the Nile flood. After that, you'll take a motorboat ride down the Nile River to Agilika Island, where you'll explore the Temple of Philae, which was built during the Greco-Roman period and is dedicated to the goddess Isis (mother of god Horus).

Finally, you will be taken to one of Aswan's most beautiful monuments, The Unfinished Obelisk, which is composed of red granite and dedicated to the god Amun Ra. You will return to your cruise after completing your day trip. On board, lunch will be served. Onboard, afternoon tea will be provided. At night, you are free to do whatever you choose. In Aswan, have dinner and spend the night.

Day 5: Aswan - Home.

After breakfast, check out. Then, our representative will accompany you to Aswan airport - station to catch your flight to Cairo.

Optional Tour: Private coach or domestic flight to Abu Simbel temples: You will be met by our English-speaking tour guide in Aswan, who will transfer you by private A/C van to Abu Simbel, which is located south of Aswan on the Nile's western bank, 180 miles south of the First Cataract in what was Nubia. In ancient times, the location was known as Meha, and it was first documented in the 18th Dynasty when Ay and Horemheb built rock-cut chapels in the hills to the south. Following your arrival, you will see the Abu Simbel Temples, which were erected by the famous monarch Ramses II. The Great Temple was the largest of the temples. It was dedicated to the legendary god Rahorakhty and erected by Ramesses II. The smaller temple, on the other hand, was dedicated to King Ramesses II and his lovely wife Queen Nefertari. You will return to Aswan after completing your day excursion. Arrive in Aswan and be driven to your hotel of choice by private A/C van for check-in, rest, and refreshment, or transfer to Aswan airport for your domestic flight to Cairo.
