Itinerary

Day 1- Embarkation Luxor East Bank Tours

The first day will be spent embarking and checking into your cosy cabin aboard the Sonesta Moon Goddess Nile Cruise before lunch. We will pick you up from any point in Luxor, such as the Luxor international airport or the train station. Later, meet your Egyptologist guide to enjoy your Luxor day tours and see the magnificent Karnak Temple, which is regarded as the crowning achievement of ancient Egyptian structures constructed primarily during the New Kingdom. In Luxor, he will also show you how to get to the iconic Luxor Temple, which was built over the course of numerous kings but was started by Amenhotep III. You will take part in a Belly Dance Performance and afternoon tea before dinner is provided on board after finishing your Luxor East Bank Excursion. Enjoy music in the lounge.

Day 2 - Luxor West Bank Tours - Sail to Edfu

Early in the morning, take a (optional) hot air balloon ride over Luxor to get a bird's eye view of this stunning city.

An early morning wake-up call will be followed by breakfast on your Egypt Nile River Cruise before you begin your Egypt Day Tours in Luxor. On these tours, you'll visit the Luxor West Bank and learn about mummification and all of the ancient Egyptian burial rituals while viewing the final stages of the royal tombs in ancient Egypt, which were carved into the western mountain that would later become known as the Valley of the Kings by the Pharaohs of the new kingdom. Continue your Luxor excursions as your guide takes you to see the Colossi of Memnon and to learn about the temple of Queen Hatshepsut, a well-known female pharaoh in ancient Egyptian history. After lunch and afternoon tea on board, set sail for Edfu. On board, meals are served as guests listen to music in the lounge.

Day 3- Edfu and Kom Ombo Temples - Sail to Aswan

With a wake-up call in the early morning and a sumptuous breakfast on board the cruise ship, guests can have a fantastic tour of Kom Ombo and Edfu, visiting the temple at Edfu that was constructed for the cult of God Horus, before sailing to Kom Ombo while lunch is being served on board. See the Kom Ombo Temple, which was shared by the gods Sobek and Horaeris in ancient Egypt, and then continue sailing to Aswan while having afternoon tea and your delectable dinner on board. To complete your entertainment experience with Cairo Top Tours, the Galabiya Party will be held.

Day 4 - Aswan Tours

You will eat breakfast on board the vessel at 7:00 a.m. before disembarking from your Egypt Nile River Cruise and beginning your Aswan day tours. First, you will visit the High Dam in Aswan, which is the country's largest dam but was not the country's first. Next, you will travel to the Granite Quarries to see the largest Unfinished Obelisk, which some scholars believe was never finished because it was not finished before Queen Hatshepsut passed away. The Temple of Philae in Aswan, which was built in the Greco-Roman architectural style for the worship of Goddess Isis, will be your next stop on your Aswan tours.

Day 5 - Disembarkation

Our tour guide will transfer you from the Luxor to Aswan Nile Cruise boat after breakfast to the Aswan airport, train station, or any other drop-off place required.
