

Enjoyable Street Food Tour in Old Delhi

Price Starting From: $0

One day tour Old Delhi Street India New Delhi Everyday

Traditional Street Food Tour in Old Delhi

Explore the colorful lanes of Old Delhi on foot and by bicycle rickshaw during this four-hour food excursion. Savor a range of regional specialties, such as the classic Punjabi dish chole bhature and delectable jalebis drenched in syrup. Explore Old Delhi's rich gastronomic and historical traditions while visiting the lighted Jama Masjid mosque and Asia's largest spice market. Bring an appetite because your tour includes dinner-worthy culinary sampling and beverages!

Overview

Inclusion

Local Guide
As much food and soft drinks as you like!

All transportation (Metro, Rickshaw rides)

Exclusion

Hotel/Residence pickup and drop-off Gratuities

Itinerary

Food tour in Old Delhi Street

Firstly, We will explore the Rajiv Chowk, which is a bustling metro station and an important transportation hub located in the heart of New Delhi, India. It is one of the busiest and most significant metro stations in Delhi.

Then, we will take a look at Chandni Chowk, which is one of the oldest and busiest markets in Old Delhi. It is a bustling and vibrant area renowned for its rich history, diverse culture, and bustling shopping streets.

After that, We will discover more about Indian culture, tourist attractions, and streets so you should take a look at Khari Baoli. Khari Baoli is a historic street located in the bustling Chandni Chowk area of Old Delhi, India. It is renowned as Asia's largest wholesale spice market and has been a hub for the spice trade for several centuries.

Finally, we will visit religious tourist attractions like Masjid-i-Jahan Numa, which is one of the largest and most renowned mosques in India. This site is located in the heart of Old Delhi. It is an architectural masterpiece and a symbol of the Mughal architectural grandeur. You will see the design style of the Islamic religion in India.