Day1: Welcome to Kenya

Hey There! When you arrive at Jomo Kenyatta International Airport in Nairobi, you will be greeted by one of our representatives who will assist you with your transfer to your overnight hotel.

Day2: A Journey Maasai Mara National Park

The Maasai Mara, Kenya's most famous wildlife safeguarding, is known for its variety of animals, which includes the big five. Every year, millions of zebras, gazelles, and wildebeests traverse the sanctuary on their way from the Tanzanian border and the Serengeti plains to the Maasai Mara grazing fields, which open in late June. The reserve is a thriving bird safety, home to about 452 species. Keekorok Lodge, the first structure in the Maasai Mara Game Reserve, is located directly in the path of the yearly migration of animals, which happens from July to October. In addition to the best safari experiences, guests can enjoy morning and evening game drives. When you get there, the Maasai Mara National Reserve will be in the centre of you. at the airfield at Keekorok. You will pass a family of elephants or a herd of zebras on your short drive to the lodge, where you will be welcomed with open arms in your very own 4x4 Land Cruiser.

Day 3: Discovering Maasai Mara National Park

Enjoy the wonders of the Maasai Mara on your second day there, from the rivers to the grasslands.

A Balloon Safari

Spend your second or third day in Kenya experiencing the exhilarating Balloon Safari in Masai Mara. Starting at 5:30 PM, the tour takes you on a one-hour ride over the Masai Mara National Park, where you can see the reserve's breathtaking wildlife. Miles of savannah, undulating hills, and riverine forest dot the park, which is home to a sizable lion population. After an hour of breathtaking views, you'll be greeted in the wild with a delectable champagne breakfast.

Day4: A Tour to Lake Nakuru National Park

Drive to Lake Nakuru National Park this morning. This narrow, alkaline lake is famous for its huge flamingo population; hundreds of thousands of these birds can sometimes give the lake a shining pink colour. The park is home to an incredible set of wildlife, including the threatened Rothschild's giraffe, which is only found in this park in Kenya, white rhinos, rare black rhinos that are guarded here, lions, buffalo, hippo, warthogs, baboons, and the leopard, which is frequently seen falling asleep on the branches of the magnificent yellow-barked acacia trees.

Day5: A visit Aberdare National Park

Following breakfast, arrive at Aberdare National Park, saying goodbye to Lake Nakuru National Park. The Aberdare National Park is beautiful, with open grasslands and steep forested ravines. Elephants, black rhinos, leopards, spotted hyenas, olive baboons, black and white colobus monkeys, buffalo, warthogs, and bushbucks are just a few of the animals that make the park their home. The African wild cat, African civet cat, bongo, golden cat, serval cat, giant forest hog, and blue duiker are among the animals that are rarely noticed. In addition to camping on the moorlands, visitors can enjoy picnics and trout fishing in the nearby rivers. With over 250 species of birds in the park, including the Jackson's Francolin, sparrow hawks, goshawks, eagles, sunbirds, and plovers, bird watching is an enjoyable experience.

Day 6: Fly Back Home from Nairobi

You say goodbye to the Aberdare and begin your journey back to Nairobi after breakfast at the Ark. Early in the afternoon, you will land in Nairobi, the vibrant capital of Kenya, from where you will be taken to Jomo Kenyatta International Airport in time for your flight home.
