

Exciting safari tour in Kenya

Price Starting From : $3278

5-Days

Maasai Mara National

Kenya

One country

Everyday

Let's enjoy a fascinating five-day adventure through the amazing landscape and numerous animals of Kenya. Explore the world-famous Maasai Mara, which is Kenya's top game reserve. Take a trip to Lake Nakuru National Park, which is famous for its different landscapes, animals, and huge flamingo flocks. Get this once-in-a-lifetime chance by reserving your Kenya tour today!

Overview

Inclusion

- For game viewing and photography, transportation in a 4x4 land cruiser or chauffeur-driven minivan with a pop-up roof is available.
- You will find all safari equipment in each vehicle, such as a first-aid kit, wildlife books, an icebox, and a fire extinguisher.
- Each vehicle has a two-way long-range high-frequency radio.
- The services of a guide who speaks English
- Free 500 ml mineral water for each person during each safari vehicle game drive
- All park admission costs as listed on the schedule
- Accommodations as listed on the schedule
- Every game viewing drive
- All governmental fees and assessments
- Every meet-and-greet facility
- Every transfer upon arrival and departure
- 24-hour emergency phone number
- Meals as listed on the schedule

Exclusion

- Tips and gratuities to the hotel, lodges, camp workers, and driver guide(s): $5.00 to $10.00 per person per day for the hotel and lodge personnel
- Everything personal, such as phone bills, fax/email bills, etc.
- Drinks, both alcoholic and non-alcoholic
- Internal and international flight tickets
- Services for laundry
- Visa charges
- Anything else that isn't on our itinerary

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival Day in Nairobi

Hey there as well! Our team will welcome you warmly when you arrive at Nairobi's Jomo Kenyatta International Airport and make plans for your overnight hotel stay.

Day 2: Discovering Maasai Mara National Reserve

After being welcomed, you are going to set out on a thrilling excursion to Maasai Mara, which is Kenya's popular wildlife sanctuary, through the Rift Valley. Travel to the place and enjoy a game-viewing drive so that you can arrive in time for lunch.

Fascinating information about Maasai Marar

Kenya's most visited and well-known game reserve, Maasai Mara, is renowned for its wide variety of wildlife, which includes the Big Five. From late June to early July, the yearly migration of gazelles, zebras, and wildebeests from the Serengeti plains to Maasai Mara is a breathtaking sight. With over 450 different bird species in the reserve, Keekorok Lodge provides an ideal setting for seeing the yearly migration. Game drives and safari adventures are available from July to October.

Day 3: Exploration experience in Maasai Mara National Reserve

Spend the entire day taking morning and evening game drives in Maasai Mara. You can take advantage of the lodge's activities for the remainder of the day.

Day 4: Trip to Lake Nakuru National Park

This morning, start your journey by taking a drive to Lake Nakuru National Park, which is well-known for being a shallow, alkaline lake that is brilliantly pink due to the presence of large flamingo flocks. Numerous species of wildlife can be found in the park, such as the endangered Rothschild's giraffe, which is unique to this area, lions, buffalos, hippos, warthogs, baboons, and leopards relaxing in the yellow-barked acacia trees. In addition, both white and black rhinos find refuge there; the latter are particularly well protected.

Day 5: The final stop - Back to Nairobi

You will say goodbye to Lake Nakuru after breakfast and begin your journey back to Nairobi. Early in the afternoon, you will land in Nairobi, the vibrant capital of Kenya, from this point, you will be taken to Jomo Kenyatta International Airport in time for your flight home.