Day 1: Arrival to Jeddah

The person in charge of the tour or driving will be waiting for you. They will have a sign with the words "CairotopTours" on it. You don't have to search for them - they will be waiting for you and will find you. You will go to your hotel in a cool car and stay the night in Jeddah.

Day 2: Jeddah historical Tour

For breakfast, we will go explore Jeddah's old downtown area called Al-Balad. It's known as the "Old Town" where the oldest families used to live and work. There are old buildings, a traditional market, and lots of restaurants. We can walk around the old streets and see what life was like in the past.

When you visit historical Jeddah, you will feel like you are in old Saudi Arabia. You will hear interesting stories, explore hidden doors, and take a fun walk through Al-Balad.

This tour of Old Town will show you special places that most people don't know about. You'll see historic buildings like Beit Nassif and the Makkah gate, take photos at the Historical Jeddah north gate, and explore hidden gems like the Old Market and local food shops. It's a chance to see old buildings mixed with new, and discover secret spots that only locals know about.

After that, you will go to Al Shafi Mosque, which is the oldest mosque in Jeddah.

Next, you will go to Al Tayebat International City Museum, which is like a big puzzle with lots of rooms that teach you about the history of Saudi Arabia, how buildings are made, how to decorate inside a house, and art from Saudi Arabia and other Islamic countries. The museum is also a fun place to take pictures.

This museum has four floors filled with lots of interesting things to see. You can find old things from before Islam, beautiful books, coins and weapons, and even amazing furniture, pottery, and clothes from Saudi Arabia. They also have pretend homes from different parts of the country. The displays have signs with great information, and there are even little models of different places in Saudi Arabia.

Finish the tour by going for a fun ride along The New Jeddah Corniche. It's a special place by the sea in Jeddah, with a long road that goes along the coast. There are also places to play and relax, cool buildings to look at, and big sculptures that you can take pictures with.

Would you like to go on a special adventure where we try different kinds of yummy food in Jeddah? It's like a tour where we explore different restaurants and taste delicious dishes!

Spend the night in Jeddah.

Day 3: Jeddah Desert Safari Tour

Have a fun breakfast in Jeddah where you can ride a special bike called a quad bike in the desert. The best part is that the journey to get there is also really exciting!

Visit a camp in the desert that looks like how the Bedouin people live. You can have tea and coffee, and do fun things like climbing rocks, going on hikes, riding quad bikes, and more. At night, you can walk on the sand, look at the stars, and sit by a fire drinking coffee.

A fun tour in Jeddah at night for kids to explore and enjoy.

Day 4: Jeddah – Riyadh Historical Tour

In the morning, eat your breakfast. Then, go to the airport to catch your flight to Riyadh.

To start your tour, you can visit the National Museum of Saudi Arabia. It's a very special museum that tells the story of Saudi Arabia's history, including how the country was formed and the important people in the royal family. Inside, you will see many old things like ancient objects, writings, and papers, all organized in order of when they happened. There are eight big rooms in the museum, each with a different theme. You can learn about the universe, the kingdoms in Arabia, what happened before Islam, the time of the Prophet, the first Saudi government, and how the kingdom was united. There is also a room about the Hajj pilgrimage and the two holy mosques. In the museum, you can also see beautiful artwork and buildings that are important to Arabian and Islamic culture. Some of the special things you can see are a big skeleton of an elephant from a long time ago, a big space rock found in the desert, drawings on rocks from a long time ago, a copy of a famous stone with writing on it, and old tombs cut into rocks.

After visiting the National museum, you can go for a walk in the beautiful outdoor gardens. It's one of the best gardens in Saudi Arabia! The park is a big open space where you can have fun with your family. Inside the Hall of King Abdulaziz, you can see a special display of old cars that the king used.

Next, we will go see Murraba palace, which was built by King Abdulaziz for his family. It was built in a traditional style using materials from the local area. We will see some really cool pictures inside the palace.

Next, you will go to the Dira Souq traditional market in Saudi Arabia. This market is famous for selling old copper and brass items, as well as silver daggers, jewelry, and dresses. The market smells like sandalwood when you enter. You can buy antique carpets and other traditional Saudi items there. After that, you will visit Al Masmak, which is a historical fortress. You can learn about Saudi Arabia's history through exhibitions with maps, photographs, artifacts, and audiovisual displays. There is also a short film showing the capture of the fortress by King Abdul Aziz, whose spear is still in the gate.

Spending the night in Riyadh.

Day 5: Riyadh City Tour

For breakfast, we are going to start our tour by visiting a place called Diriyah. Diriyah is a very special place because it is where the first Saudi state was born a long time ago. It is like a time machine that takes us back to when Saudi Arabia was first started. We can see some really old houses and buildings there, but some of them are being fixed up right now so we can only look at them from the outside. Diriyah is also a very important place for people who go on religious journeys and for people who trade things. It is a place filled with history and we can learn a lot about Saudi Arabia's past there.

Ad Diriyah was a city in the desert near Riyadh that had curved walls made of mud bricks. It was a busy and important place for trading and had a lot of culture.

Al Turaif district is a very important place in Saudi Arabia. A long time ago, it was where the royal family lived and ruled. It was also the first capital city of Saudi Arabia. The old buildings in Al Turaif are very special and important, so they are being fixed up to make them look like they did a long time ago. The United Nations thinks this place is so special that they made it a World Heritage Site.

In the Al Bujairy district of Ad Diriyah, there is a famous religious scholar named Mohammed bin Abdul Wahab. The area has old mud huts that have been turned into special places to learn about history and culture.

Next, you will go to Kingdom Tower or Mamlaka Tower, which is the tallest building in the city. It is in the Oalya district in Riyadh. This tower is very well-known in Riyadh. Inside the building, there is a shopping mall with many fun things to do and places to eat. You can also go on the Sky Bridge Al Mamlaka, but you need to buy an extra ticket. It is a cool bridge where you can see a really great view of the whole city. There are also some yummy restaurants and shops there.

You will also go to a place called The Al Rajhi Grand Mosque. It is a very big mosque in Riyadh and is really amazing to look at. It is also really important to the people who practice Islam in the city. Inside the mosque, there are two libraries, classes about forensic science, a system that helps with the electricity and water, and a big area for men that can fit 18,000 people and a smaller area for women that can fit 2,500 people.

At the end of your visit, you will see a very special library called The King Fahd National Library in Saudi Arabia. It is a really cool building with a unique design, and it is considered an important place in the city. The library was started in 1983 because the people of Riyadh wanted to honor their new king. Now, lots of tourists like to visit this library, but it is closed on the weekends.

Would you like to go on a special adventure in Riyadh where we get to try lots of different delicious foods? It's called a food tour, and it's optional, which means you don't have to go if you don't want to.

Spending the night in Riyadh.

Day 6: Edge of The World Tour

After eating breakfast, we will go for a car ride to a place called Jebel Fihrayn, which is also known as “the Edge of the World.” It is 120 Km away from Riyadh. When we get there, we will stand on top of a very high cliff and see a beautiful view of the horizon all around us. It will feel like we are standing at the very edge of the world, which will make us feel very excited and happy.

These cliffs are like a big wall that goes up really high from the desert. When you stand on top of them and look far away, you can see the sky blending into the empty ground.

The Edge of the World is a cool place in the desert near Riyadh, Saudi Arabia. It got its name because when you stand on the high rocks, you can see really far in all directions.

This place is a big cliff that is part of a long line of cliffs. It goes down really deep into an old ocean area. When you stand on the edge, you can see dry rivers and camels walking below. The camels are following a path that people have used for a long time.

Would you like to go on a special trip to a village called Ushaiqer? It's a place where people have lived for a very long time and they have lots of interesting things to show us. We can learn about their traditions, see their old houses, and even try some yummy local food. It's like going back in time and seeing how people used to live a long time ago. It will be a fun and educational adventure!

Spending the night in Riyadh.
