The tour starts at the Valley of the Golden Mummies to look at ten great royal mummies regarding the Egyptian necropolis usage. Then go to the nobles' tombs – this is one of the most visited archeological sites showing what kind of significance the pioneers of the oasis had and what they constructed for themselves. There is the Zed-Amun-Ef-Ankh tomb and also the tomb of Bannentiu.

The second activity on the list is visiting the temple of Alexander, which was built to indicate the stop before going to Siwa Oasis. The final site will be the temple of Ain El-Mefetla, which belongs to the 26th Egyptian dynasty. The temple was constructed with more extra rooms at every epoch.
