Day 1: A Trip in Luxor

Start your journey by boarding your opulent Nile cruise ship in Luxor. You'll begin your exploration of Luxor's historical treasures once you've settled into your chic cabin with panoramic views. See the magnificent Karnak Temple Complex, which features enormous statues, elaborate hieroglyphics, and towering columns. Proceed to the Luxor Temple, which is exquisitely lit up at night and provides a captivating light display that brings the pharaohs' history to life. Head back to the ship for a fine meal and a leisurely evening.

Day 2: From Luxor to Edfu

Proceed to the West Bank of Luxor for an excursion following a lavish breakfast. Discover the Valley of the Kings, where Tutankhamun's tomb is located, and the resting place of Egypt's pharaohs. Admire the magnificent Queen Hatshepsut mortuary temple, an architectural marvel set against the untamed cliffs. Go back to the ship and set out to find Edfu. Lunch is served on board, and in the afternoon, unwind on the sun deck while admiring the gorgeous views of the Nile. You will be served dinner as you proceed south on your journey.

Day 3: From Edfu to Kom Ombo

After returning to the ship in the afternoon, continue sailing towards Kom Ombo, where you will visit the unique double temple dedicated to the gods Sobek and Horus the Elder. Learn about the temple's fascinating history and its dual dedication to two deities. Later in the afternoon, return to the ship for dinner and enjoy an evening of onboard entertainment. In the morning, visit the Temple of Horus at Edfu, the best-preserved cult temple in Egypt, dedicated to the falcon god Horus.

Day 4: A trip from Kom Ombo to Aswan

Early in the morning, set sail for Aswan. Once there, venture on a boat excursion to the enchanted Philae Temple, honoring the goddess Isis. This temple complex is a real treasure of ancient Egyptian architecture, having been moved to Agilkia Island. After that, pay a visit to the well-known Unfinished Obelisk, a massive granite sculpture that provides insight into ancient Egyptian stone-making methods. Proceed to the Aswan High Dam, a contemporary wonder that has greatly impacted Egypt's agriculture and economy. taste a delicious dinner after seeing a traditional Nubian show onboard in the evening.

Day 5: Departure from Aswan

On your last day, take a leisurely felucca sailboat tour around the Aswan islands, giving you time to take in the tranquil beauty of the Nile and its environs. Bid farewell to the ship and your fellow passengers after breakfast. You might have more time, depending on your future travel arrangements, to take in the lively atmosphere of Aswan, visit local markets, and explore the city at your leisure. Take amazing memories of your opulent Nile cruise through the ageless wonders of ancient Egypt with you as you transfer to Aswan Airport or your next destination.
