Itinerary

Day 1: Cairo - Alamein - Siwa

Your Cairo Top Tours professional tour leader will meet you at your hotel and embark on your Egypt Desert Safari to Siwa Oasis. It begins with the El Alamein tour where you will visit the World War II Cemeteries; this will be the going in honor of the fighters who struggled as well as offering their lives. These cemeteries are owned by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission to pay respect to those who from commonwealth nations participated in the war. You will also pay a visit to the ground zero where the fateful battle was fought and also tour through the World War II Museum at El Alamein.

There are more places to visit after that, namely the beautiful Marsa Matrouh Bay on the North Coast of Egypt. There, you will enjoy a tasty seafood lunch facing the clear sea, followed by an hour's drive to Siwa from El Alamein.

Upon arriving in Siwa, you'll have an opportunity to put your feet in the hot water springs – natural sources of water at your disposal after a rather tiring day of traveling. Spend your last night at a lovely Eco-lodge in the village of Siwa, the perfect way to get a true sense of the night in the desert.

Day 2: Siwa Sightseeing

The day is again devoted to the desert and the Siwa Oasis Desert Safari; after breakfast, you explore the ruins of the ancient town of Siwa, or Shali. Siwa is a comparatively young settlement; therefore, some partial remains of the ancient town allow an understanding of the history of the place. Subsequently, you will be taken to the Temple of Alexander the Great – it is called the Temple of the Oracle in the ancient village of Aghurmi. Built during the 26th dynasty, this temple still served an important function during the age and was said to be the place where Alexander the Great consulted with oracles.

You are then taken for a tour at the Temple of Amun Ra at Um Ubeyda which is believed to be a deity temple for god Amun and his triad. Later on, get to taste Siwa's historical side by being able to walk through the house of the Siwa museum which gives a detailed account of the Bedouin people.

Savor a nice meal with the outstanding Equipment Restaurant in the square of the oasis with the Shali fortress view.

In the afternoon visit Cleopatra's Spring (Ein Guba) which is basically a natural source of fresh water that is very clear for swimming. You complete your day mic with a beautiful sunset view at Fitnas Island with eye satisfaction as you gaze at the sunset sets complete the sand desert.

Overnight in Siwa.

Day 3: Shiata - Great Sand Sea - Bir Wahed

Break up the best organic meal at the eco-lodge for breakfast to kick-start the energy for the day's activities. This call takes your Great Sand Sea road trip to Maraki village where you will tour a unique archaeological site at the towering Siwa Mountain. Here you can witness the first human footprint ever made giving your desert safari a rich history.

Next, you'll visit one of the most stunning sights in the Great Sand Sea: this is a beautiful lake in the middle of the desert. The calm nature of the area provides an ideal environment for a bird-watching exercise and occasionally you can view a flock of flamingos. Tire your body and go for a swim in the cold and crystal clear water enjoying the solitude in the middle of the desert.

For those who love tasty moments, the movement is only continued by an interesting view of sandboarding. Sail over the extensive sand hills of the Great Sand Sea; with an appropriate wax effort, have fun sliding over the fine sand. Subsequently, such tourists may take a break and free time to wash off the dust of the desert by bathing at one of the famous Hot Springs Bir Wahid. Their water was 40°C which gives one a nice pleasant feeling as muscles are eased.

Overnight in Siwa.
