Day 3: Khan El khalili - Old and Islamic Cairo

Welcome to the third day of your exciting Cairo adventure! Today is supposed to be just like a time-traveling journey, as you plunge into the rich tapestry of Cairo's historical and cultural wonders.

Begin your day with an invigorating breakfast before you proceed to the stunning Citadel of Saladin. This beautiful fortress stands atop the town, commanding an exceptional panorama of Cairo, sprawling across concrete and steel. Here, a stroll through the ancient citadel will whisk you away to a time of sultans and fighters, as whispers of courage tell their stories along its halls.

Then, dive into the dramatic charm of Islamic Cairo: it is filled with architectural wonders and pulsating souks. While walking around its narrow lanes, one often stumbles upon strikingly beautiful mosques. Given their intricate designs and historical value, the Islamic Cairo Area is a definite place to visit.

After a delightful lunch, continue your journey to Coptic Cairo. This area is drowned in Christian history and is home to some of the oldest churches in the region. Visit the Hanging Church, an architectural gem that seems to disregard gravity with its broken core. The church's quiet atmosphere offers a peaceful break from the city's hustle.

End your day by visiting the famous Khan El Khalili bazaar, which forms a visual celebration because of the way its booths are put together, brimming with fairs and lights. Here, one can buy all sorts of souvenirs that consist of intricate jewelry to handmade fabrics. By wandering around these busy lanes, you finally feel the pulsating rhythm of Cairo's dynamic spirit.

Today's schedule is filled with an exciting mix of history, culture, and local color. Understand the wide and varied heritage of the city by exploring both Islamic Cairo and Coptic Cairo. Every second of this unforgettable tour through one of the world's most fascinating cities!
