Day 1: Arrival Day

Welcome to our private tour of Lebanon, which can be customized to meet your interests and budget. You'll enjoy a more personalized experience as the trip will be just for you and your family, with no other people.

Upon arrival at Beirut's Rafik Hariri International Airport, you will meet your private driver in the arrivals hall and be escorted to your hotel. During the rest of the day, you can take some rest from jet lag or wander around the city center.

Accommodation: Al Jawaher Hotel (4 stars)

Day 2: Tour to Deir el-Qamar and Beirut

In the morning, you will visit Beirut's famous sights, including the Corniche, the Pigeon Rocks, also called Raouche Rock, and Beirut Souks where you will see the famous bell tower and the National Museum with its rich exhibits. In the afternoon, you will be escorted to the Chouf Mountains to visit the palatial Beiteddine Palace and Deir el-Qamar, which is a well-preserved ancient town with elegant layouts.

Meals: Breakfast and lunch.

Day 3: Tour to Saida, Tyre, and Beirut

After breakfast, you will head to Sidon, which is one of the oldest Phoenician cities, to enjoy a different lifestyle in its souk, sea fort, and fish market. The next stop is another Phoenician city - Tyre, where you will visit the ruins of Tyre, including the Egyptian harbor, public baths, Roman cemetery, and hippodrome. On the way back to Beirut, you will stop to visit the Temple of Ashmun.

Meals: Breakfast and lunch

Day 4: Tour to Beirut, Baalbek, Ksara, and Anjar

The first stop for the day is the Baalbek Temple Complex, which was built for Baalbek, the sun god. After a two-hour drive, you will arrive there and visit the Temple of Jupiter, the Temple of Bacchus, and the Temple of Venus, the three parts of this ancient temple. Afterward, you will continue your journey to the famous Chateau Ksara winery to taste some mellow wines that are considered the best in Lebanon. After visiting the Umayyad ruins in the ancient city of Anjar, you will be escorted back to Beirut.
