"Most tourists enjoy exploring the scenic landscapes and attractions of the country in the convenience of their own cars, rather than on buses or coaches. This allows them the freedom to plan their itinerary and make changes based on their preferences, without being bound by the schedules of others.

Whether it's the amount of time spent at a tourist site or the choice of restaurants for meals, they prefer to have control over their experiences. Therefore, we prioritize meeting the needs of our guests and ensuring their complete satisfaction."

One-day tour to Beirut downtown

Beirut Souks

Immerse yourself in the vibrant and bustling Beirut Souks, a unique marketplace offering a blend of shopping and cultural experiences. Wander through the colorful stalls, boutiques, and eateries that adorn the historic district's narrow streets, and soak in the lively atmosphere of one of Beirut's most iconic destinations.

Mohammad Al-Amin Mosque

Mohammad Al Amin Mosque, also known as the Blue Mosque, is situated in Downtown Beirut. It was constructed following a contribution from former Prime Minister Rafik Hariri and stands as a tribute to his legacy. The mosque is just one of the many accomplishments of this esteemed leader, who redirected his efforts towards revitalizing Downtown Beirut, offering educational grants to students, and promoting overseas investment in Lebanon.

Pigeon Rocks in Raouche

The Pigeon Rocks, a natural wonder of Lebanon, can be found in the sea near the historic Raouche. The vicinity surrounding these rocks has provided evidence of ancient human presence in Lebanon. Take a stroll along Raouche's Corniche and admire these breathtaking sights.
