After your breakfast, an Egyptology guide from Cairo Top Tours will meet you early in the morning at a prearranged time to begin your tour of the Great Pyramids. Here you can see one of the seven wonders of the ancient world, the huge pyramid of King Khufu, as well as the pyramids of King Chephren and Mycrinus.

The Pyramids of Giza are known for their enormous size and amazing degree of preservation. On a day tour of Egypt, explore the 4th dynasty of the ancient kingdom, where these antiquated buildings were constructed. You'll see The Great Sphinx Of Giza Facts, a rock carving with the head of a pharaoh and the body of a lion. You will have the opportunity to visit the Valley of the Temples of Khafre, which was built after Khufus as his successor. His younger brother and Pyramid-era successor to King Djedefre, King Chephren, built this temple to aid mummification in Egypt.

We will enjoy a delicious Egyptian lunch and then continue to visit the The Egyptian Museum In Cairo in Tahrir Square in the heart of Cairo. The museum houses a variety of Egyptian monuments from around the world, dating back 6,000 years.

If you have time, you can also incorporate a trip to Coptic Cairo into your itinerary. Visit The Hanging Church, one of the oldest Jewish monuments in the country, the Church of Saints Sergius and Bacchus, and the Roman fortress of Babylon. Before returning to your hotel, you can also check out the Ben Ezra Synagogue and the Bazaar of Khan El Khalili, one of the oldest bazaars in the Middle East.

Day 9: Jerash, Ajloun and Umm Qais Tour

In the morning, we drive two hours from Amman to Gadara (Umm Qais), which used to belong to the famous Decapolis, a confederation of 10 cities, founded by Alexander the Great. Here you have a wonderful view of the northern Jordan Valley, the Golan Heights, and the Lake of Galilee. We head to Jerash, located in the foothills of Mount Gilead, an ancient city reminiscent of the Roman Empire.

As one of the largest and best-preserved sites of Roman architecture outside of Italy, its splendor can be seen in the colonnaded streets, the Nymphaeum, and the Temple of Artemis. The next stop is Ajloun, the large 12th-century Islamic castle built around 1184/85 by the famous Islamic leader Salah al-Din. Back to Amman and overnight.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 10: Dead Sea in Jordan

After breakfast, head to Mount Nebo, the place where the Prophet Moses looked at the Promised Land before his death and his alleged burial place. You visit the ancient monastery and overlook the Jordan Valley, the Dead Sea, Jericho and Jerusalem. After that, we move to Madaba, where we find the famous mosaic map of Palestine dating back to the sixth century in the Church of St. George.

Then head to the Dead Sea. Located at the lowest point on earth and rich in various minerals with medicinal properties, this place has developed into a health spa-like hotspot. The mineral concentration in the mud is used for therapeutic and cosmetic purposes. It is said that Queen Cleopatra and Sheba both knew the value of this ruin and used it. It is called the Dead Sea because the salt concentration is too high for life to exist in this water, and it is easy to float on it. Get ready to swim and relax in the mud before returning to Amman.

Overnight at the hotel in Amman.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 11: Petra Tour

After eating breakfast, we will drive for a while to get to Petra, which is a very famous and beautiful place in Jordan. The city was built a very long time ago by a group of people called the Nabataean Arabs. The buildings there are carved into the mountains and look wonderful. When we arrive, we will walk through a colorful gorge that is very tall and impressive.

When you walk out of the narrow canyon, you see the amazing beauty of Petra, which is considered one of the most amazing places in the world. After exploring Petra, you walk back through the canyon before going back to Amman.

Overnight in Amman
